The new Album is much heavier and more Metal than their Debut !

Dallas, Texas-based, supersonic, intergalactic heavy rock trio Mothership give a real sense of hope that all is well in the universe, and that pure honest rock and roll has once again returned to this planet on a mission to unite true believers. Consisting of brothers Kyle Juett on bass/lead vocals, Kelley Juett on guitar/vocals, and Judge Smith on drums, these guys have created a unique sound that satisfies like a steaming hot stew of UFO and Iron Maiden, blended with the southern swagger of Molly Hatchet and ZZ Top, paired with a deadly chalice of Black Sabbath. Mothership's goal from the beginning has been to carry on the tradition of the classic rock style of the '70's, updated and amped up for the modern day. The band has been non-stop road warriors since the release of their debut album in February 2013 on Ripple Music successfully invading the United States, Canada, United Kingdom and Europe playing either on festival stages, night clubs, or outdoors under the sun at motorcycle parties.

OBBERO – The Infinite Corridors of Time (NEW*HEAVY/DOOM METAL*SWE*HOUR OF 13*ARGUS)

Nighttripper Records 2015 - Heavy Rocking Doom Metal from Sweden with Martin Missy (EX-Protector on Vocals) - much more traditional Metal than their first album. The Infinite Corridors of Time, the second long-player from Stockholm old-schoolers Obrero should — contrary to their logo — appeal to fans of Hour of 13 and Argus and others who've made preservation of classic metal their mission, skirting the fine line between doomily Sabbath worship and proto-NWOBHM stylized forwardness of purpose. After the critically acclaimed first album OBBERO are exploring deeper into the realms of the of obscure 70's rock/psych territory while still standing fast to their 80's metal roots of doom, heavy metal and stoner rock. And again they have the vocal delivery of Martin Missy (Protector) as the cherry on top, a vocal delivery that has something weird and unique to it, like a magic mixture of Bobby Liebling, Lee Dorrian and John Garcia, turning from a full-throated howling animal to a ghostly, almost eerie master of ceremonies in seconds.

For Fans of Argus, Hour of 13, Black Sabbath, Judas Priest

ANGUISH - Mountain (SWE EPIC DOOM METAL*LIM. BLACK VINYL*CANDLEMASS*PALLBEARER) - 18 Euro

Dark Descent Records 2015 - Killer Doom Metal from Sweden like a Bastard between Candlemass Riffs, Pallbearer + Bathory/C.F. - Atmosphere ! Limited Edition in Black Vinyl + printed Insert ! Anguish's brand new album, Mountain, sees the band expanding upon their oppressive brand of doom metal. Mountain, the follow-up of 2012's Through the Archdemon's Head, is stripped down from its predecessor, clocking in at 48 minutes (8 tracks) but injects more variation. 'Mountain' has a schizophrenic split between traditional epic doom and raging restlessness. Singer J. Dee's style is sometimes akin to that of Tom G Warrior, a mournful rasp of rebellion, and the guitars' muscular discordant chug has echoes of old Celtic Frost. And yet Anguish blend all of that with the elegant, epic riffs of Candlemass, showing a slow and mighty mastery of traditional doom metal values – as well as a willingness to reach for the stars. Elsewhere there are elements of Griftegard and Pallbearer, but lacking the direct impact of those bands.
For Fans of Candlemass, Trouble, Saint Vitus, Griftegard, Pallbearer, Celtic Frost (Doom Metal parts)

20 Buck Spin Records 2014 - Limited Edition on Black Vinyl - the fantastic Demo from Pallbearer has now released on Black wax !

Candlemass-channelling riffs and employs an extremely strong sense of melody. Brett Campbell's voice is perfectly suited to the task, sitting somewhere between the humble yowl of Ozzy Osbourne, the melodrama of Messiah Marcolin, and the weariness of Wino. Perhaps a confusingly eclectic description, but it illustrates how this sweltering and authentic invocation of each of the genre classics deftly works its clear influences.

9 Points from 10 at Doommantia ! For Fans of Saint Vitus, Candlemass, My Dying Bride and Pentagram

Die Nachricht, dass Fates Warning beim 2016er Keep It True Festival im legendären „Awaken The Guardian“-Line-up auftreten, war in den vergangenen Wochen DAS Gesprächsthema nicht nur der Prog-Metal-Fans. Grund genug, eine umfassende Story zu dieser Sensation nebst Interviews mit allen Bandmitgliedern und wichtigen Wegbegleitern zu bringen. Oder anders ausgedrückt: Wir liefern euch Fates Warning geballt!

Während ein Teil unseres Teams also auf Progwolke sieben schwebt, begab sich unser irischer Außenposten Alan Averill hingegen in die Hölle (sprich: nach Newcastle), um sich mit Black-Metal-Legende Cronos über Deibel, die Welt und Venom auszutauschen. In der Fortsetzung unserer "Heavy-Metal-Schätze"-Serie geht es diesmal nicht nur um rare Tonträger (der NWOBHM), sondern auch um die Sammelleidenschaft in Bezug auf Shirts und Aufnäher. Ein exklusives Interview mit Wovenhand ist ebenso ein Schmuckstück unserer Ausgabe wie Manuel Trummers Wegweiser durch den (folkloristisch gefärbten) Proto-Hardrock sowie ein seltenes Interview mit Lucifer's Friend und ein Porträt des Okkultrock-Freaks Roky Erickson. Exklusiv melden sich ferner die Melodic-Rock-Gottheiten Journey zu Wort.

Ebenfalls im Heft: Enforcer, UFO, Moonspell, Enslaved, Melechesh, Europe, Helrunar, Kenn Nardi, U.D.O., Black Star Riders, Archgoat, Alpha Tiger, Solstice, Hetroertzen, The Answer, Chapel Of Disease sowie unsere beliebten Rubriken The Dungeons Are Calling, Heavy Metal Hunter, Under A Funeral Moon, Battle Of The Records und Forgotten Jewels.
