Fans old and new will not be disappointed, as the "holy trinity" of releases from the band's early days – Kill For Pleasure (1987), the Face Fate EP (1988) and Chopping Block Blues (1990) – inform much of the new album. All the speed, brutality, and twists 'n' turns BLOOD FEAST is known for are intact and in your face (nine of the 10 songs being written by original guitarist Adam Tranquilli), yet updated with modern production. Joining Adam are vocalist Chris Natalini and bassist Tom Lorenzo, along with some new blood in Joe Moore (drums) and CJ Scioscia (guitar). The past is indeed alive on The Future State of Wicked, and the days ahead surely spell that a BLOOD FEAST is imminent!

This is limited edition (500 units) two CD set. FOR FANS OF: ZNÖWHITE, DYOXEN, POWERMAD, DEFIANCE

To tell the story of CYCLONE TEMPLE, one must begin with Znöwhite. Formed in 1982 by siblings Greg Fulton (guitar) and Tony Heath (drums) along with their cousin, Curtis Fulton (bass), Znöwhite eventually welcomed singer Nicole Lee and became one of the more promising speed metal acts in the U.S. Throughout the mid-'80s, the Chicago-based outfit issued two EPs and a live album before signing with Roadracer Records for the release of their critically acclaimed album, Act of God, in 1988.

Following lineup changes that found Fulton surrounded by an all-new cast consisting of Scott Schafer (bass), John Slattery (drums), and powerhouse ex-Hammeron vocalist Brian Troch, a name change was imminent. Rechristened as CYCLONE TEMPLE, the group signed on with Combat Records and entered Normandy Sound in Warren, RI to track their debut album, I Hate Therefore I Am, with engineer Tom Soares. A soulful masterpiece of thrash, I Hate Therefore I Am arrived in stores in 1991, and CYCLONE TEMPLE toured with a variety of acts before being unceremoniously dismissed from their label during a Sony takeover. As such, the groundbreaking creativity, intelligence, emotion, and power of I Hate Therefore I Am unjustly failed to make its mark. A frustrated Troch walked away, and CYCLONE TEMPLE soldiered on to release an EP (Building Errors in the Machine, 1993) with singer Marco Salinas, and follow-up album My Friend Lonely—with yet another vocalist, Sonny DeLuca—before throwing in the towel in 1994.

DEGRADATION - Revelation In Blood (NEW*US TECH/SPEED METAL*F. ENTRY*D.HAMMER*SADUS) - 15 €

Divebomb Records 2017 - Fantastic US Progressive, Technical 90's Speed Metal

FOR FANS OF: SADUS, FORCED ENTRY, SACRED REICH, DEMOLITION HAMMER, HELLWITCH

DEGRADATION formed in 1992 amidst the same Florida scene that had spawned such greats as Deicide, Morbid Angel, Obituary, and countless others. That same year, the group laid down a raw, never-released demo with the help of Jon Oliva and Chris Caffery from the legendary Savatage, but it wasn't until January of 1993 that DEGRADATION would enter Anything Audio in Pinellas Park, FL to record their proper debut demo, Look Into the Sadness (which was re-released later that year with some additional leads from newfound second guitarist Jeremy Baird, a.k.a. Jer Storm). Unfortunately, shortly after the EP's release, DEGRADATION began to fall apart, suffering frequent lineup changes before Walsh—the original founding member—decided to put the group to rest upon receiving an offer to join up with fellow Tampa residents Brutality for their third full-length, In Mourning. But Revelation in Blood remains an incredibly rare unsung classic from Morrisound's heyday—at times fetching more than $100 on CD—DEGRADATION's complete discography is rereleased with this brand new reissue. Fully remastered by Jamie King at The Basement Recording, the packaging includes updated cover art by Steven Cobb, complete lyrics, loads of archival flyers and photos, and a retrospective interview with Dana Walsh conducted by NoEcho.net co-editor Andrew Aversionline.

Like their Portland brethren, Bewitcher, before them, Divebomb Records is honored to announce the signing of hard-hitting thrashers EXCRUCIATOR for the CD release of their latest and greatest album! Formed in 2008 as a reaction to the weak-minded trends and overdone "core" music that had been infecting Portland at the time, EXCRUCIATOR's mission remains to revive the spirit and values of true heavy metal, long-since lost in the Pacific Northwest.

In the years that followed, the group would proceed to unleash a four-song demo, the By The Gates Of Flesh EP, and debut full-length Devouring. Released by Heavy Artillery/Earache Records in 2011, Devouring found EXCRUCIATOR labelmates with other modern day metal saviors such as Spellcaster, Vektor, and Vulture, among many others. For Fans of Pallbearer, While Heaven Wept, Iron Maiden meets High on Fire, Solstice, Sorcerer

The six meticulously crafted songs on Absolution reveal a level of musicianship and writing skill seldom heard on debut albums. Often within the scope of a single song, KHEMMIS veers effortlessly between the crushing heaviness of Southern sludge and the somber melodies of traditional doom metal, cohesively weaving the disparate styles into their own immediately recognizable form. Vocally, KHEMMIS also utilizes a dual approach, sometimes harsh and guttural, but generally through a stunningly smooth classic doom/heavy rock delivery that even adamant fans of Pete Stahl and Wino will applaud. The powerfully adept rhythm section perfectly anchor the towering riff mastery and colorful dual guitar harmonies, all brought together by Dave Otero's (Cobalt, Nightbringer) pitch perfect production work.

ARKEYN STEEL RECORDS 2017 - One of the most obscure and well hidden gems of US Steel finally faces the daylight! Legion (Augusta, GA) - Darkness CD (+Bonus: "For We Are Many" Unreleased album) ! Limited Edition of 500 Hand numbered Copies !

For Fans of Deadly Blessing, Enchanter, Omen, Metal Church, Commandment

Legion from Augusta, Georgia, USA was founded back in 1985 by multi-instrumentalist Doug Calloway. His vision to deliver a powerful mixture of Heavy/Power and Speed Metal performed by a fully dedicated band was clear since the very first rehearsal with the vocalist Loy Mitcham.

With Marvin Mitcham on drums and Chuck Goodwin on bass, Legion became a four piece metal force. They recorded and presented -live and in studio- some high class steel in their very own way. Imagine a very powerful mix of early Metal Church, Deadly Blessing, Omen and Enchanter and you can understand the basic musical vibe of Legion.

From 1985 until 1994 Legion recorded lots of material. Unfortunately due to various difficulties only an official independent LP tape release has seen the light of day back in 1991. An original copy of the "Darkness" LP-tape is one of the wildest dreams of the few people worldwide who know about Legion's existence.

Arkeyn Steel Records have managed to track down this magnificent band. But we knew from the very first time that a simple re-release of the "Darkness" LP tape wouldn't do full justice. To release their entire back catalogue was the main goal. It seemed impossible but we finally made it.

So here they are: Two separate CD releases representing the Legion saga. The first one is called "Darkness" and it will feature the entire "Darkness" LP-tape (1991) plus the band's fourth unreleased album "For We Are Many" (1994). More than 77 minutes of music, the Legion way.

The second release is called "Bible Of Stone" and it will feature the band's unreleased "Bible Of Stone" album (1989) plus their 1985 2-song demo. A wide selection of rare and unreleased tracks, 4 track and rehearsal recordings from the band's first era (1985-1987) is also included. More than 74 minutes of music, capturing the band's first era!

Everything is re-mastered direct from 24track tapes packed with lyrics, info and bio. Handmade cover artwork by Doug Calloway himself completes the puzzle giving to the reissues this obscure, fantasy artistic touch that fits extremely well with the band's vision.

Legion is not just another lost Metal band from the 80s. Legion is the great example of force, passion and dedication to steel, transformed into music. No, back in the day Legion got no big record label and big budgets on their side, they got no promoters and managers to spread their music around. They simply got their magnificent talent and their dedication to music. They remained active recording their stuff, letting no difficulties touch them. Well now it is time for all the music to see the daylight the way it deserves. Get ready for the ultimate Metal experience! Get ready for JOIN THE LEGION!

SUSPIRIA got its start as a trio by the name of Corporeal Decay in Crystal Lake, IL in January of 1991. Building upon a melting pot of influences centered around '80s metal, Bay Area and German thrash, and early death metal, within five months the group had released a three-song demo titled Divinely Impaled. Mere months later, the demo was re-released with new artwork, a new logo, and a new band name: SUSPIRIA.

By the end of the following summer in 1992, SUSPIRIA had solidified a five-piece lineup and entered Real to Reel Recording Studio with engineer Bruce Pedersen for their sophomore demo, Psychological Inertia. Eventually released in February of 1993, the extremely professional-looking four-song cassette further improved upon the group's brutal yet sophisticated take on technical death metal, but a period of relative inactivity saw the band perform its final show that July, eventually fading into obscurity by early-1994.

TERMINUS - Tomb Of Infamy (NEW*US 90's DEATH/THRASH METAL*OBITUARY*MORGOTH*ASPHYX) - 15 €

Divebomb Records 2017 - US Thrash/Death Metal from the great early 90's !

Deluxe edition of the never-before-released Tomb of Infamy EP—freshly mixed by Kenn Nardi from Anacrusis (an old friend and occasional bandmate of TERMINUS bassist Chris Speciale) and including the seven-song Creations full-length as a bonus

FOR FANS OF: OBITUARY, DEMENTED TED, BENEDICTION, ASPHYX, MORGOTH

Born in Stockton, CA in 1990, TERMINUS spent a few years honing their uniquely dark and dissonant style of death metal before circulating a crude four-song demo, To Release the Unknown, to friends and fans alike in early-1993. The following year, in the autumn of 1994, the group entered Pus Cavern Recording with ex-Brutal Groove (and future Danzig) guitarist Joe Fraulob to track their lone full-length masterpiece, Creations.

Self-financed and eventually released on Stinkfist Records, Creations offered a refreshing blend of aggression and atmosphere through thick, chugging rhythms; unusual, semi-technical dissonance; and unexpected melodic twists—not to mention engaging lyrical themes that combined fact and fiction in an effort to “strike fear in the heart of the listener.” TERMINUS remained active for several years—performing live and promoting the album—before ultimately returning to Pus Cavern in the winter of 1996 to flesh out a follow-up EP. Entitled Tomb of Infamy, said EP was to explore a more complex approach with nuanced undercurrents of dark, industrial influences. Sadly, it would never see the light of day...

Jolly Roger Records 2016 - Brandnew CD Edition - Awesome 70's Heavy Rock incl. some Folk/Prog influences from Italy for Fans of Uriah Heep/Blue Öyster Cult meets Jethro Tull - outstanding album !

“‘Handful Of Stars’ represents an hypothetical band’s cycle as it contains also music based on ideas developed during the recording sessions of ‘Litanies From The Woods’, but left behind because that album was already almost 80 minutes length”, comments Ricky Dal Pane.

“There are 3 unreleased songs and a tribute to two of our favourite bands of all time: ‘Flaming Telepaths’ from Blue Öyster Cult and ‘Rainbow Demon’ from Uriah Heep.

We also added an extended version of the song ‘Handful Of Stars’ with a breathless intro. This is a very well curated album and it’s full of interesting material. It’s not just a filler between two full-length albums as its length is 45 minutes. We are very happy about it and we hope our fans won’t be disappointed”.

Witchwood born from the ashes of the cult band Buttered Bacon Biscuits in 2014. BBB released "From The Solitary Woods" (Black Widow Records) in 2010. The album has been very well reviewed by many Italian and international music magazines and websites. BBB played many gigs around Italy, also supporting important bands like Uriah Heep, Jethro Tull, Bud Spencer Blues Explosion, etc. They also recorded the cover “A National Acrobat” for the Black Sabbath tribute “Hands Of Doom” released by Mag Music Production in 2013. After the BBB split some members of the band (Ricky, Andy, Steve and Sam) along with the new bass player Luca Celotti decided to start a new project, Witchwood. Those musicians have been active for decades, with past recording experiences and collaborations with artists such as Martin Grice (Delirium) and Nik Turner (Hawkwind). The debut album "Litanies From The Woods" is the result of 2 years of songwriting, long and hard rehearsals and recording sessions and it has been released by Jolly Roger Records on CD and Digital in May 2015, and on 2 LP in October 2015. The album features ten tracks for 78 minutes and it is a long journey from 70's hard rock, to progressive, psych, southern rock and blues. The record received excellent reviews both from Italian and international press, and also very good selling-results (the CD has been printed twice and the 500 double LP's sold out in a few months). Recently Witchwood were voted as "best emerging band in 2015" by Rock Hard Italy readers, and played the final match in the Wacken Metal Battle competition.

Each song is a true metal tune and each contains something of the basic elements to be a true metal song. 1982 was full of great metal bands, probably so many that some possibly slipped through the cracks and faded into obscurity. Vocally, KHEMMIS also utilizes a dual approach, sometimes harsh and guttural, but generally through a stunningly smooth classic doom/heavy rock delivery that even adamant fans of Pete Stahl and Wino will applaud. The powerfully adept rhythm section perfectly anchor the towering riff mastery and colorful dual guitar harmonies, all brought together by Dave Otero's (Cobalt, Nightbringer) pitch perfect production work.

LORD was the brainchild of the extraordinary singer Guy Lord that in the mid-80s was the frontman of the speed metal masters BLOODLUST and had contributed some classic tunes such as "Ride to Death". LORD is a whole different story. While appearing as a hard rock band due to the biker outfit of the band members, this album is nothing more and nothing less than a molten heavy power metal release with ingenious song writing and very original compositions.

The album was originally released in 1988 by Golden Bear Records and it has become a highly sought after item on vinyl. So, we managed to secure the album license for a limited release on LP and CD. This is the transparent red vinyl LP edition, featuring remastered sound, lyrics, old photos, posters and interview with the founder of the band Guy Lord. Limited to 100 copies.

Expect nothing less than supreme U.S. steel through amazing compositions like "Mr Death", "Back to the Asylum", "Leather Queen", "Promises" etc. HAIL!!!

ROXX Productions 2016 - US Direct Import - Only 150 copies on black vinyl. Each copy is hand numbered and also comes with a limited edition 11" x 17" promotional poster of the brand new album from Pylon entitled 'A Lament', which was also just released in 2016 on Roxx Records / Quam Libet Records.

For Fans of Candlemass, Solitude Aeternus, Memory Garden, Altar of Oblivion

This brand new album does it again, hitting a true home run for heavy metal fans and doom fans alike.

In the two years since the release of Homo Homini Lupus, Pylon have made no progress whatsoever – which is the greatest compliment you can give this Swiss band of doom stalwarts. Again, they have managed to capture that particular down-tuned- slow-because-I-can magic on A Lament with eight brand new and epic tracks such as "Desolation Is Divine" or "Lazarus" but no less with more succinct numbers such as the paean to Clint Eastwood with the track "The Lone Rider" in its seven-minute briskness.

Back by popular demand is Matt Brand on Ozzy-tinged lead vocals. Ian Arkley does the honors of gracing the album with a majestic guitar solo on "The Day After The War" whilst Damir Eskic, representing the top echelon of Swiss Malmsteen disciples, takes the speed up a notch with a roaring lead break on "Desolation Is Divine".

ROKSNAX - V/A (NEW*LIM.250 BLACK V.*NWOBHM*HOLLOW GROUND*SAMURAI*SARACEN) - 23 €

Buried by Time and Dust Records 2017 - Limited Edition Rerelease of 250 copies in Black Vinyl - GATEFOLD Cover !

By the end of 1980 the New Wave of British Heavy Metal was in full swing and many of the landmark records by bands such as Diamond Head, Angel Witch, Saxon, Iron Maiden and many others had been released. Still hundreds of new young hopefuls were honing their craft and paying their dues in the garages and clubs all over the UK.

Fortunately the movement featured numerous samplers that showcased some of the best young talent of the time with their most impressive numbers. Legendary Compilations such as Metal for Muthas I and II, New Electric Warriors and Metal Explosion to name just a few. To us though the very best compilation was actually a three way split by the name of Roksnax.

The record which was originally supposed to be a four way split (Hellanbach pulled out of the project) but was released with four tracks each from the legendary Hollow Ground, Saracen (not the band who released Heroes Saints and fools on Nucleus in 1981) featuring the soaring vocals of Lou Taylor, later of Satan/Blind Fury and Samurai(not the Ebony records act).

All twelve tracks were recorded and mixed within 72 hours and features the best of NWOBHM. Hear the magic of Hollow Ground, the early speed metal of Saracen and the heroic Samurai, each of the twelve song smokes!!! The reissue will be in gatefold cover featuring recollections of the blitzkrieg recordings from each band documenting the tough conditions, ghosts in the studio and the magic being recorded!! Never seen before photos included as well and of course one of the best lp covers ever done.

Roxx Productions 2017 - Limited Edition of only 150 copies in Black Vinyl, individually numbered ! This one will soon to be sold out ! This was the real Return of the mighty SAINT - US White Metal in its best way, for Fans of Judas Priest - Painkiller-Era, Cage, Iron Maiden or Barreca Cross. Josh Kramer on vocals with one of his best performances !

A powerful storm is brewing to take place in 2010 and at the center of that storm is the latest album from Oregon headbangers, Saint. Hell Blade (the band's 8th studio album) hits the stage with all guns blazing and ready to take no prisoners. This album is a tremendous heavy machine that is hitting on all cylinders as the band has assembled a massive array of heavy metal thunder. Josh is in all his full-throated glory, Jerry Johnson's guitars are forthright and dominant, Richard Lynch's bass work is enormously huge and the drums drive and plow the listener into total submission. Energy just oozes out of the performances. Hell Blade is a masterpiece and the band has literally never sounded better.

After the successful launch of our Limited Edition vinyl series called the 'Underground Series' we are very happy to announce the 5th release in the series. We are very excited to announce that classic Christian metal band SAINT has allowed us to add their 2010 release entitled 'Hell Blade' to the series.

'Hell Blade' was the bands 8th official release and was hailed as an amazing return to form for the band with all of the original members partaking in this comeback album. Roxx Records is very excited to be giving this release its very first appearance on Limited Edition vinyl complete with brand new cover art made exclusively for this vinyl release. This release is limited to 150 pieces and each is individually numbered on black vinyl.

Blood And Iron Records 2017 - Limited Edition Rerelease on Black Vinyl - only 300 copies ! NWOBHM Classic !

Formed in 1981 by ex-ANGEL WITCH members Kevin Riddles and Dave Dufort, they had among their line up, other notable musicians like Kal Swan (future Lion singer), Les Binks (ex-Judas Priest/Lionheart) and Simon Wright (ex-AC/DC/Dio). Due to the Kamaflage bankruptcy, TYTAN found themselves without label and it was too late when finally "Rough Justice" was released on another label (called Metal Masters) after three years of the single "Blind Men and Fools" causing a big impression among the British Metal fans and press.

The band by this time was finished and Kal was on the States with Kevin giving the first steps as Lion. This album is highly regarded as one of the best 80s British Heavy Metal LPs, recorded in the tail end of the NWOBHM. WIKKA was a great Canadian band that started out back in the mid-80's as DARKON. Their only EP release back in 1988 is a 4-track masterpiece, that through the years has become a collector's item and one of the most unique pieces of U.S. / Canadian metal music from the 80's.

With pride we present you the original EP remastered and loaded with many bonus tracks previously unreleased. This grey vinyl edition comes with interview with the band (courtesy of Laurent Ramadier of the mighty SNAKEPIT magazine), lyrics of all songs and renewed artwork. Limited to 100 copies.

Svart Records 2016 - Limited edition of 200 copies only in RED Vinyl, Gatefold

Fantastic French Doom/Metal for Fans of Electric Wizard, Saint Vitus, Orange Goblin, Black Sabbath

The riffs are more focused, vocals are sharper and the lyrics have a real sense of dread. This is a band that has reinvented their sound for the better. These guys haven't suffered from the much-dreaded second album syndrome. Sanguis draconis is a thick, blood red resin extracted from exotic trees. Since dawn of times it has uses in medicine, crafts and of course... magic. And so is Witchthroat Serpent's music: dark and heady as blood, weird as it would come from another world, and ridden with that old powerful magic men both used to practice and fear.

WITCHTHROAT SERPENT - Sang-Dragon (NEW*LIM.300 BLACK VINYL*STONER/DOOM METAL*O.GOBLIN*E.WIZARD) - 19 €

Jolly Roger Records 2016 - Limited Edition of 400 copies in Black Vinyl, Gatefold Cover !

Awesome 70's Heavy Rock incl. some Folk/Prog influences from Italy for Fans of Uriah Heep/Blue Öyster Cult meets Jethro Tull - outstanding album !

"'Handful Of Stars' represents an hypothetical band's cycle as it contains also music based on ideas developed during the recording sessions of 'Litanies From The Woods', but left behind because that album was already almost 80 minutes length", comments Ricky Dal Pane.

"There are 3 unreleased songs and a tribute to two of our favourite bands of all time: 'Flaming Telepaths' from Blue Öyster Cult and 'Rainbow Demon' from Uriah Heep.

We also added an extended version of the song 'Handful Of Stars' with a breathless intro. This is a very well curated album and it's full of interesting material. It's not just a filler between two full-length albums as its length is 45 minutes. We are very happy about it and we hope our fans won't be disappointed".

Witchwood born from the ashes of the cult band Buttered Bacon Biscuits in 2014. BBB released "From The Solitary Woods" (Black Widow Records) in 2010. The album has been very well reviewed by many Italian and international music magazines and websites. BBB played many gigs around Italy, also supporting important bands like Uriah Heep, Jethro Tull, Bud Spencer Blues Explosion, etc. They also recorded the cover "A National Acrobat" for the Black Sabbath tribute "Hands Of Doom" released by Mag Music Production in 2013. After the BBB split some members of the band (Ricky, Andy, Steve and Sam) along with the new bass player Luca Celotti decided to start a new project, Witchwood. Those musicians have been active for decades, with past recording experiences and collaborations with artists such as Martin Grice (Delirium) and Nik Turner (Hawkwind). The debut album "Litanies From The Woods" is the result of 2 years of songwriting, long and hard rehearsals and recording sessions and it has been released by Jolly Roger Records on CD and Digital in May 2015, and on 2 LP in October 2015. The album features ten tracks for 78 minutes and it is a long journey from 70's hard rock, to progressive, psych, southern rock and blues. The record received excellent reviews both from Italian and international press, and also very good selling-results (the CD has been printed twice and the 500 double LP's sold out in a few months). Recently Witchwood were voted as "best emerging band in 2015" by Rock Hard Italy readers, and played the final match in the Wacken Metal Battle competition.

MAGAZINE

DEAF FOREVER #16 (NEW*METAL MAG*HORISONT*KREATOR*POSTER MIDNIGHT*T.LIZZY) - 6 €

Brothers of Metal, Maidens of Steel! Wenn man von aktuellen Hardrock-Bands spricht, die das Erbe der alten Größen Thin Lizzy, Rainbow, Uriah Heep oder UFO antreten könnten, dann kommen nur zwei oder drei Namen in Frage. Einer, den Kenner fast immer nennen, ist Horisont. Und mit ihrem neuen Album "About Time" sind die Schweden über sich hinausgewachsen. Aus diesem Grund widmen wir dem überragenden Göteborger Quintett unsere Titelstory!

Kreator, Europas mit Abstand größte und erfolgreichste Thrash-Metal-Band, nähern sich mit ihrem neuen Album "Gods Of Violence" dem klassischen Heavy Metal noch weiter an. Urgestein Mille erklärt die Hintergründe. Dass der einstige Scorpions-Gitarrist Uli Jon Roth zu den besten und einflussreichsten Gitarristen der Welt gehört, weiß ja jedes Kind. Dass der an der englisch-walisischen Grenze lebende Jimi-Hendrix-Verehrer aber nach einer langen musikalischen Experimentierphase wieder zu seinen Wurzeln zurückgekehrt ist, wissen noch nicht alle. Wir fragten der Legende Löcher in den Bauch. Von der Debüt-Mini-LP bis zum ersten Longplayer dauerte es sechs Jahre. Doch das Warten auf die Rückkehr der Nürnberger VENENUM hat sich gelohnt: „Trance Of Death“ hat unseren Soundcheck souverän gewonnen und gilt für viele in unserem Team schon jetzt als Anwärter auf die Platte des Jahres!

Die Verquickung von Metal mit Postpunk und Gothic-Rock ist ein Trend, den manche verteufeln, aber viele auch lieben: Was In Solitude mit „Sister“ und Beastmilk mit „Climax“ losgetreten haben, ist jetzt schon bei Behemoth und Consorten angekommen. Unsere Mitarbeiter Paul und Andy sind die Trauzeugen dieser unheiligen Allianz und haben das ganze Genre auf den Kopf gestellt - während Manuel Trummer musikalischen Geschichtsunterricht gibt - in gewohnt spannender Weise. Bei einem Thema wie Uriah Heep muss man irgendwo einen Strich ziehen, wenn man die XXL-Karriere der Hardrock-Giganten nicht oberflächlich abhandeln will. Seht selbst, wie Manuel dieses Problem gelöst hat. Mittlerweile zum dritten Mal in der Geschichte des Deaf Forever hat unsere Leserschaft ihre Favoriten, Enttäuschungen, Überraschungen, Ärgernisse und Helden in Form unseres großen Jahrespolls gewählt - und das so zahlreich, dass das Ergebnis tatsächlich hohe Aussagekraft besitzt. Wir haben vieles so erwartet, sind aber durchaus auch überrascht worden - und stolz auf das geschmackssichere Ergebnis!

Weitere Interviews haben wir geführt mit: Dread Sovereign, Overkill, Dool, Lord Vigo, Arduini/Balich, Obituary, Pain Of Salvation, Black Star Riders, Striker, Lemming Project, Midnight, Screamer, Cut Up, Attacker, Thunder, Havok, Night Ranger, Heimdalls Wacht, Place Vendome, Crystal Viper und Silver Machine. Im Rahmen unserer Earmageddon-Serie sezieren wir das Schaffen des amerikanischen Rockmusikers Bruce Springsteen, ferner stellen wir euch das kultige französische Heavy-Metal-Label Black Dragon Records vor, das in den achtziger und neunziger Jahren zahlreiche Perlen veröffentlichte, die heute als absolute Klassiker gelten. Die bekannten Rubriken Under A Funeral Moon (u.a. Death Worship, Morta Skuld und Vircolac), The Dungeons Are Calling, Maniac der Ausgabe und Forgotten Jewels liefern euch wieder spezielle Typen und brandheiße Tipps. Zu den Schwerpunkten unserer Konzert- und Festivalrückblicke zählen diesmal u.a. das Stage Kill Festival sowie das De Mortem Et Diabolum Festival. Und im zweiten Teil unseres nationalen Szenereports geht es diesmal um die niedersächsische Metal-Hochburg Osnabrück.

Massenhaft Tonträger-Reviews sind selbstverständlich, und zwei verdammt coole Poster spendieren wir euch ebenfalls: Thin Lizzy mit einem ganz besonderen Motiv sowie „Satanic Royalty“ von Midnight. In diesem Sinne: You can't stop Steel!
