ATTACKER - Armor of the Gods (NEW*US POWER METAL EP*LIEGE LORD*HELSTAR) – 10 €

Metal on Metal Records 2018 - US Power/Heavy Metal from USA
While already writing songs for their 7th full-length, the US metal veterans from New Jersey decided to first offer their fans an EP featuring 4 brand new studio and 2 live tracks. The live ones are from their amazing show at the Up the Hammers festival in Athens in 2017 and show perfectly that ATTACKER are a force to be reckoned with live as well. The studio tracks are their typical US power/heavy metal sonic attacks with masterful guitar work, pounding drums, pummeling bass and air raid siren style vocals of the one and only Bobby "Leather Lungs" Lucas.
All vital ingredients for a classic metal release are on board here, as it's always the case with the Lords of Thunder. The legendary producer and engineer Alex Perialas helped to make sure the songs sound top notch. So grab this EP clocking in at 35 minutes while waiting for their next full-length attack!
Do it especially if you claim to be a US Metal fanatic and if bands like HELSTAR, LIEGE LORD, DESTINY'S END, VICIOUS RUMORS, SEVEN WITCHES, OVERLORDE, JAG PANZER (and obviously IRON MAIDEN) make your heart pump faster!

AXTION from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania to commemorate this mark! This band needs no special introduction... Their debut album 'LOOK OUT FOR THE NIGHT', originally released in 1985, is one of the best examples of pure hard-rocking U.S. Metal, with heavy riffing being present in every song, without compromising a remarkable line of choruses.
Since last October, we have been working directly with AXTION's mastermind Darren Lazzari, and we are proud to say that we have collected an awesome quantity of AXTION's material, in order to offer you the best 'LOOK OUT FOR THE NIGHT' CD release, EVER! This reissue will include unreleased recordings, in a total of 11 songs of pure guitar frenzy, with a new remastered sound (using analog sources), carried by Bart Gabriel (CIRITH UNGOL, PAGAN ALTAR, SORTILEGE).
Includes a 16-page booklet with songs lyrics, never seen before photos and band biography, by the pen of Darren Lazzari himself. Limited to 500 copies!

AXTION - Live CD + DVD (NEW*LIM.300*US METAL*SWORD*SHOK PARIS*D.THORNE) – 17 €

Lost Realm Records 2018 - Brandnew US Metal Rerelease incl. 90 Min. Bonus Live DVD incl. never seen before official video clips - limited to 300 copies !
In 1986 the AXTION 'Live' EP is released, through the French label Dream Records (St. Elmos Fire, Nightmare, ESP). It was the band's last release before its demise. Truth must be told: this release never had the proper treatment the band desired. The cover artwork had nothing to do with the AXTION feel, there were several songs missing, and the audience we can actually hear on those tracks were dubbed, not from an actual AXTION crowd, but from another band... Well, now we had the proper time to work on this live release, as AXTION truly deserves! We have the pleasure to bring you the full live bootleg recording, in a total of 13 remastered tracks, presenting the original cover concept, together with a DVD comprising more than 90 minutes of live footage, including the AXTION's first show at Graffiti (Pittsburgh), plus never seen before official video clips. A must-have for any AXTION fan! Comes with a 8-page booklet with rare photos, interview, biography and liner notes, by the hand of AXTION's mastermind Darren Lazzari! Hurry up, because it's limited only to 300 NUMBERED COPIES!

Banshee are a legendary US Power Metal band formed by guitarist Terry Dunn, who remains the main man behind the band to this day. The band was formed in 1986 and only a few months after they released their "Cry In the Night" EP, which was picked up by Metal Blade Records in 1988 for release. They also included the song "We Want You" on the Metal Massacre 9 compilation.
By the end of '88 the band's popularity had become such that they gained the attention of Atlantic Records. "Race Against Time" was released on Atlantic Records in 1988. Unfortunately the band was lumped in with the hair metal bands at the time, despite the fact that they had a much tougher, heavy metal sound. It wasn't until 1992 that we were given new music from the band. They released their independent album "Take 'Em By Storm", with the band parting ways shortly after.

The band got back together for reunion shows in 1999, 2000 and again in 2008. It wasn't until 2012 that the band released their fourth studio album Mindslave on Snowblind Records. The album featured vocalist George Call (ASKA, Violent Storm, Omen), original bassist Chuck Hopkins, and drummer Marty Schiermann. The album was a return to the heavier sound of "Cry in the Night." In fact, guitarist and songwriter Terry Dunn said that "Mindslave is the album that should have followed "Cry in the Night". In fact, it's much heavier than "Cry in the Night". According to Scott Waters own NoLifeTilMetal review, "The music fits squarely into the US power metal camp while retaining all the melody and hooks that Banshee have always been known for. The sound is a bit tougher, there may be a bit more groove and the lyrics are a little darker than their past albums, but overall Banshee still fits in that classic American power metal pocket...The sound is built around heavy, over-driven guitars, pounding drums, thunderous bass, screaming vocals and, of course, wicked guitar solos. George Call is a fantastic vocalist and really gives this album a ton of charisma. Comparisons to Tony Martin (Black Sabbath) and Ronnie James Dio would not be far off.

Terry Dunn had this to say, "Mindslave is a body of musical and lyrical work written between 2007 and 2012. The songs were influenced by life events I experienced and people in my life. I felt I needed to create an album that was the continuum of our EP, "Cry In The Night". I always wanted Banshee to be heavier with more interesting lyrics and I achieved that with "Mindslave", This would be my first attempt at writing lyrics for an album. I collaborated with George Call the singer on the record who did a amazing job. The songs are a bit darker but mesh well with the subject matter and lyrics. I feel that this is Banshee's best work to date..."

BATTLERAGE - Dreams in Darkness (NEW*HEAVY METAL CHILE*METAL CHURCH*SACRED STEEL) – 13 €

Metal on Metal Records 2018 - Brandnew album with classic Heavy Metal from Chile

It's been 7 long years since the last album of these Chilean heavy metal warriors, but finally the follow-up to their 3rd full-length is here and it's their most varied one to date. BATTLERAGE have been always struggling with line-up problems, but one constant remains: the original vocalist, Fox-Lin Torres, who now became the main songwriter. His unmistakable gruff voice, with a tons of passion and rough energy, along with the hard hitting old school heavy metal with the most impressive guitar work, will have many metal hearts pumping faster for sure! As uncompromising as before, but with new facets to their songwriting, standing with one foot firmly planted in US Metal (CIRITH UNGOL, METAL CHURCH, OMEN...) and one in European metal, especially the Teutonic metal of the '80s (GRAVE DIGGER, TYRANT, PARAGON, SACRED STEEL...), they are once again fighting for a true metal victory, though the style is better described now as just plain heavy metal. They've exchanged the axe for the sword, no less deadly but oh so much more versatile.

From speed metal bullets to mid-tempo fist-raisers, the album packs everything you can expect from BATTLERAGE, but often with a new and unexpected twist to it. Reinventing themselves while remaining themselves, this is surely their strongest and most original album so far.

BLACKSMITH - Gipsy Queen - The Early Years 83-86 (NEW*SWE 80's METAL/NWOBHM*LIM.500) – 14 €

No Remorse Records 2018 - Brandnew lim. 500 SWE 80's Metal / NWOBHM incl. unreleased Bonus Tracks !

Way back in the early '80s there was a band in Sweden, called BLACKSMITH. Influenced and inspired by bands like Rainbow and the New Wave of British Heavy Metal, after few years of hard rehearsals they got the chance to record the "Gipsy Queen" EP that was released in 1985.

Blacksmith built a strong fan-base and the following 7" single "Tomorrow's Mystery" of 1986, including also the ballad "The King Has Lost His Crown", even reached the charts in Japan and along with "Gipsy Queen" are two releases with huge demand from fans of Hard Rock and Heavy Metal.

There are few unreleased songs from rehearsals and even if the quality is not good, it's time to release a full CD from those Blacksmith early years.

BLACK VIPER - Hellions of Fire (NEW*SPEED METAL*SAVAGE GRACE*A.STEEL*CRIMSON GLORY) – 14 €

High Roller Records 2018 - Brandnew rampaging speed metal attack from Norway following in the footsteps of Omen, White Hornet, Agent Steel, Liege Lord!

For Fans of Agent Steel, Heathen, Omen, Crimson Glory, Savage Grace

Black Viper is a new metal outfit hailing from Oslo in Norway. The band started out as a solo project in late 2012/early 2013 when drummer Cato began to write some songs inspired by traditional heavy metal and speed metal that did not suit his other band Deathhammer.

"The album is pretty much a mix between heavy metal and speed metal (fast heavy metal anyway)", continues the drummer. "The new material will be a bit different though, as some tracks off the album are already very old. Our new stuff which we haven't started rehearsing yet is much more powerful and more classic US metal than speed metal (maybe a bit like Crimson Glory, Queensrÿche, Fates Warning (I wish ...)). If anything, then »Hellions Of Fire« sounds a bit like the first Savage Grace album."

According to Cato, Black Viper are big US metal fans: "Yeah totally, at least Agent Steel. The US metal bands just sounded so larger than life and so over the top metal it hurts. Of course, without Priest and Maiden it would not have happened, but yes, we are very inspired by the massive power and supremacy of the US metal gods. The first Heathen album is a total ripper! Merciless E-string attack which even Hetfield in the glory days would approve of."

Although coming from Oslo, Black Viper do not feel inspired by the metal heritage of Norway: "Ha ha, absolutely not. I mean, we got some Norwegian bands which dabbled with speed metal in the 1980s, like Witchhammer and Anesthesia for example, but they just sound inspired by the same things we're probably inspired by, like Helloween and Iron Maiden

A new Harry Potter book, the next Star Wars movie, or even one's first kiss from that someone special can evoke epic proportions of anticipation. Carbide was formed in Detroit, Michigan on the city's east side in 1981. J.D. Von Doring is an original member with Neeko joining him shortly after. Later in 1990 Mark Gastmeier joined the band. The band up to that time had 2 guitarists. Through years of many members' changes the band was most stable as a three piece. So they remained. This really strong band delivered US Power/Thrash Metal serving the powerful sound and helping to plant the seeds of thrash!

In 1994 Carbide hit the studio to record the 'Spiral Termination' CD. This private release produced to only 1000 copies on CD. Between recording sessions of 'Spiral Termination' Carbide continued writing songs and started another recording project named the "Crazy Eights" (4 songs), being recorded on 8-tracks in a basement. There was a cassette sampler released prior to 'Spiral Termination' which included 2 songs from each recording project. Rest two songs from "Crazy Eights" never were released!

Arkeyn Steel Records signs a deal with Carbide to reissue "Spiral Termination" + bonus the 4 songs of "Crazy Eights" demo. This great reissue comes in 12-page glossy booklet with lyrics, bio and full of unreleased pics, cover with original artwork and remastered from DAT tapes!

Carbide can combine US Power metal and speed/thrash metal genres in their music. Strong vocals, catchy songs, melodic-razor riffs and fast tempos mixed in with their technical musical style!

Epic NWOBHM Classic for Fans of Trespass, Praying Mantis, Omega with some of the best Vocals of this era !

With their one and only, self-published 12" EP from 1984 Damascus carved their name into Heavy Metal history. Whereas in a lot of cases the "importance" of a band gets blown out of all proportion because of the rarity of the vinyl, this is not true regarding N.W.O.B.H.M. legend Damascus. The four songs on their "Open your Eyes" 12" are just so good musically that it is hard to overlook the sheer quality of this rather obscure outfit from the Merseyside area. Speaking strictly in musical terms, "Open your Eyes", "Something on my Mind", "Cold Horizon" and "Midnight Train" are brilliant Heavy Metal songs with a very strong production.

HAMMER KING - Poseidon Will Carry Us Home (NEW*GER POWER METAL*MANOWAR*R.WILD) – 14 €

Cruz Del Sur 2018 - Crucial third album from German classic power metal outfit Hammer King, Poseidon Will Carry Us Home features a series of taut, but also mighty songs, including their most adventurous feat to date: The Nautical Trilogy detailing the epic adventures of The King himself with former ROSS THE BOSS vocalist Patrick Fuchs on vocals

For Fans of Heavy Metal in the tradition of Manowar, Ross the Boss, Iron Maiden, Judas Priest with more than a reference to German Power Metal like Running Wild, Majesty, Heaven's Gate or Helloween

Simply a brilliant combination of melody and might, all wrapped up in a warm, natural production job by Powerwolfs Charles Greywolf.

Hammer Kings debut album Kingdom of the Hammer King saw the light of day in 2015, with King is Rising following a year after. Both albums quickly established the German four-piece (featuring vocalist/guitarist Titan Fox V., guitarist Gino Wilde, bassist K.K. Basement and drummer Dolph Macallan) as a fresh, powerful force in classic power metal circles.

After a fruitful studio session with Powerwolf bassist Charles Greywolf at his own Greywolf Studios, Hammer King has emerged with their pivotal third album, Poseidon Will Carry Us Home. Featuring 12 songs of pure and bombastic true metal, Poseidon Will Carry Us Home finds Hammer King honing in on their obvious strengths and expanding their sonic palette at the same time.

The bands trademark gallop and twin guitar interplay is complemented by the smooth, clean vocal delivery of Fox V., who turns in several spirited chorus choices on Warriors of Angelhill and Where the Hammer Hangs. Traditional cuts like The King Is A Deadly Machine and Battle Of War? are simply German metal at its fist-pumping best. However, it is the Nautical Trilogy that marks the greatest creative leap for Hammer King. Featuring the opening title track, At the Mercy of Waves and We Sail Cape Horn, the Nautical Trilogy is where Hammer Kings penchant for epic songcraft and heroic melodies takes flight, immersing the listener deep into the perilous sea as the band details the journey of The King. Hammer Kings immense, unyielding faith in The King is rewarded across Poseidon Will Carry Us Home. The formidable challenge of the third album has been met. Come along to the court of The King and bask in the glow of Hammer Kings greatest triumph to date. Long live The King!

Nearly after 30 years, US Prog Metal legend HEIR APPARENT returns with a new album! PRE_ORDER: "The View From Below" is set for release on October 15th of 2018 !

Seattle, WA's Heir Apparent was founded in 1984 by guitarist Terry Gorle. During 1985, Heir Apparent signed with Black Dragon Records and completed the first album "Graceful Inheritance" that was released in January of 1986. Up to this day, the debut album of Heir Apparent is considered as one of the best US metal albums of the 80s.

After highs and lows in the music industry and line-up changes, finally the band was signed by Metal Blade Records and released their second album "One Small Voice" (1989), one of the best progressive metal albums of all times. Although the future looked bright, tensions surrounding commitment and finances within the band caused a rift that split the group.

In 2000, Heir Apparent reunited at the Wacken Open Air festival in Germany, and in the next years more shows followed with different line-ups for festivals like Keep It True, Metal Assault and Up The Hammers.

The current line-up of Heir Apparent consists of original members Terry Gorle (guitar), Derek Peace (bass), Ray Schwartz (drummer) with the addition of Op Sakiya (keyboards) and the great new singer Will Shaw. This line-up dominated Up The Hammers (Greece) and Keep It True (Germany) festivals during 2016 and with this full comeback, the time is right for a new album.

"The View From Below" is produced by Tom Hall and Heir Apparent. Tom Hall has also produced the previous Heir Apparent releases and he has also worked with Queensrÿche on "Queensrÿche" EP (1983) and "Empire" (1990), among others.

9,5 from 10 at Dead Rhetoric by Matt Coe !:

" Beyond the over the top stage monikers like bassist Pontifex Mortis, lead guitarist Baron Taurean Helleshaar and vocalist Fang VonWrathenstein, you have to go in knowing there is equally fantasy/majestic lyrical content to match their style on songs such as "Figaro" and Iced Earth-edged opener "Death Dealer". Baron's leads feature plenty of shred, tapping, and arpeggio excitement while fitting the atmosphere of each song at hand – you can hear bits of Accept, Metallica, Megadeth, and Yngwie Malmsteen throughout these eleven tracks. The band prove equally up to the task on a faster, double kick anthem such as "Burn It Down (With Fire)" that features Brittney Slayes of Unleash the Archers just as much as settling into a more 90's black album Metallica effort such as "Tormentor". Overall the listeners will be hard pressed to not wave fists, headbang, or even jig to certain hooks (the latter evident on the theatrical/folk influenced "Brothers of Cain").

The ace of the appeal lies in the masterful vocal performance of Fang. Utilizing enthusiasm, multi-octave range and sustain, plus that added personal charm necessary to pull off themes of ancient/battle/fantasy times as if you are truly there, he understands the need to fluctuate song to song to help throw this material into the memory banks longer than a single pass. "Chasing Shadows" a perfect example of his commercial tendencies, understanding where to push forward and when to lay back, plus using proper harmonization opportunities to the max. The artwork, production, tones, and performances to these ears rival the main leaders of their preferred influences – generating excitement even if the topics for some may rear into that 'cheesy' tag (think Twilight Force, Grail Knights, Rhapsody (Of Fire) here). Melody and harmony drive Lords of the Trident sonically – and this is prime US traditional metal for those who love the genre and want something new to treasure. Time to seek out some back discography and ride that horse into battle."

MEDALYON – All Your Days (NEW*LIM.500*US METAL*LIEGE LORD*QUEENSRYCHE*SAVATAGE) – 14 €

Arkeyn Steel Records - 2018 - Brandnew US METAL - Lim. 500 Handnumbered CDs

For Fans of SAVATAGE, VICIOUS RUMORS, QUEENSRYCHE, FATES WARNING & LIEGE LORD

Medalyon from Cleveland, Ohio started under this name early 1987 and offered killer US Heavy/Power metal with awesome instrumental facility and power vocals.

From 1987 until 1992 Medalyon recorded lots of demos and unreleased stuff.

At 1995 and 1999 were released two stunning albums and of course Arkeyn Steel Records has managed to track down this magnificent band.

Our main goal was to release two separate CDs representing Medalyon albums plus many bonus stuff from demos and unreleased recordings. YES! We finally made it.

The first one is called "Visions" and it will feature the 1995 album plus the band's super rare Demo 1988 (5 songs) and single tape 1992 "Never Goodbye / Master of Your Mind" (2 songs). More than 74' minutes of pure US METAL waiting for you!

Everything is re-mastered direct from DAT tapes packed with lyrics, bio and fantastic vintage photos. Additionally, we use the original "Visions" cover because it was a new vision of metal covers back in the days.

Medalyon is one of our favourite Ohioan Metal bands and the perfect example of melody, passion and dedication to real US Metal.

The first part of the ultimate US Metal experience is here! Stay tuned for the second!

MELIAH RAGE - Kill To Survive (NEW*US SPEED METAL CLASSIC '88*REMASTERED DCD +16 BONUS) – 14 €

Hammerheart Records 2018 - Classic US Speed Metal from 1988, remastered DCD ! For Fans of Metal Church, Metallica, Flotsam + Jetsam !

While Boston's Meliah Rage segued into thrashier territory with the admittedly-spectacular "Solitary Solitude", their finest moment has to be the debut "Kill to Survive". This record is a stone-cold heavy metal classic, fusing classic-sounding riffs with incendiary thrash intensity, epic vocals and an acrobatic, multifarious grasp of the disparate elements that contribute to the overall sound. One could say that "Kill to Survive" feels a lot like Metal Church, but there is some Metallica sprinkled in there as well amid an ephemeral smattering of Flotsam and Jetsam's eccentricities. A very compact listen at only seven tracks including the lengthy instrumental eponymous cut (on the original, the Japanese bonus track "Kill to Survive" is now added).

Some all-time classics for sure, like the stage-setting riff powerhouse "Beginning of the End," the more classic-sounding gruffness of "Enter the Darkness" and the fan's favourite: the swirling, thrashing madness of the spectacular "Impaling Doom," which shuffles through snappy, direct riffs while Mike Munro's threatening howl commands instant moshing. Deviations from this norm do exist, like the slower, lyrically atypical "Bates Motel", and the instrumental "Meliah Rage," which does get quite fucking heavy in spots.

Regardless, it's just a fucking cool style, with song structure that feels influenced more by traditional heavy metal than thrash, although the riffs have that spastic edge to them that spices up the already competent cultivation of atmosphere. Munro certainly doesn't wax philosophical or anything - Meliah Rage don't have much of a message outside of banging the head that doesn't fucking bang. Absolutely nothing on this record is less than Metal history, and the late '80s production really gives the grafted-together genre fusion a stable sonic footing. This is one of the better guitar sounds one has ever heard, tailor-made for the more trad riffs but loose enough to open up during the thrashing.

"Kill to Survive" shouldn't be missed, being one of the most consistent, compact and virulent records in any Metal collection. It never fails to put a smile on one's face and can easily be spun front to back without the need to exercise the skip button.

MELIAH RAGE - Solitary Solitude (NEW*US THRASH METAL CLASSIC 1990*REMASTERED DCD+5 BONUS) – 14 €

Hammerheart Records 2018 - Classic US Thrash Metal from 1990, remastered DCD ! For Fans of Overkill, Wargasm, Anthrax

Despite still hanging on and actively performing even today, Meliah Rage still has not climbed the ladder of heavy metal. Back in 1990, they tried to leap forward a bit by hardening their sound, maybe become a bit more known. The result was their sophomore effort, the classic Metal album "Solitary Solitude". This album still retains some of the group's US Power Metal roots, but overall an even sharper turn towards thrash has been taken, resulting in a mostly mid-paced record that is comparable to Anthrax and even some of Overkill's stuff. The crew from "Kill To Survive" returns with a vengeance for this one. Once again Anthony Nichols and Jim Koury are the heroes, their guitar skills having been sharpened nicely in between albums. Their forceful rhythms and riffs are still remain strong, but their solos and breaks in particular are a big step up from the shredding on the debut.

Despite going down a thrashier path, much of the music on here is not all that fast. Much of it doesn't go past mid-paced, savoring riffage for speed. An aggressive onslaught of catchiness, delivered in the form of palm-muted text book thrash metal. There are a few hints of power metal and straight forward heavy metal textures, but for the most part however, this is straight forward bonafide thrash!

Overall, this album is an important part of the early nineties thrash era, just before the genre kinda disappeared for a while. All those that have never heard this album should immediately do whatever is necessary to acquire it, for it truly is a long lost classic.

MIDNIGHT FORCE - Dunsinane (NEW*EPIC METAL/NWOBHM*M.ROAD*C.UNGOL*ACCEPT*DARK FOREST) – 13 €

"Dunsinane" is a reference to one of Scotland's most notorious kings, Macbeth. The title track engages with the "real," the historical Macbeth, actually a more successful ruler than Shakespeare made him out to be...The rest of the songs also deal with many historical or fantasy inspired themes, be it from the writings of Robert E. Howard or accounts of historical battles and wars.

ROAD WARRIOR - Power (NEW*AUS POWER METAL*DUNGEON*MAIDEN*BLACKKOUT*M.CHURCH) – 13 €

Gates of Hell Records / Cruz Del Sur 2018 - Brandnew Debut Album from Australian heavy/power Metal Warriors "ROAD WARRIOR" !

For Fans of early Iron Maiden, Dungeon, Running Wild, METAL CHURCH, BLACKKOUT, SAVATAGE, JUDAS PRIEST, LOUDNESS, RIOT, TWISTED SISTER and HEXX.

Hailing from South Australia, Road Warrior effectively recreate a time when heavy metal was oblivious to trends. The bands eight-song Power debut combines taut, muscular classic heavy metal compositions with an aesthetic that is unapologetic and utterly manly. Standing tall and firm, chests puffed out, leather-clad women at their side, songs of machismo and bravado at their disposal, all the while surveying the perilous field that is the global heavy metal scene is South Australia's Road Warrior.

Their name, not surprisingly, was inspired by the popular Mad Max 2 movie (alternatively titled as The Road Warrior) that featured a young Mel Gibson portraying a hardened but humane Main Force Patrol officer who tries to uphold the law in dystopic Australia. Road Warrior soon caught the eye of Gates Of Hell Records after the release of their 2016 Ignition demo, prompting the two parties to put pen to paper for the release of the bands first-ever full-length album, Power, which is due October 5.

Featuring bassist/vocalist Denimal Blake, guitarist Overdryve and drummer Villon, Road Warrior was created out of necessity by Blake, a man who would be the first to tell you, Heavy metal is in my blood and cannot be denied. Blake, who is also known for his work in black/death metallers Cauldron Black Ram and avant-garde outfit StarGazer, has quenched his thirst for classic heavy metal in Road Warrior, compiling eight muscular, taut, mid-tempo numbers on Power. The album recorded at Against the Grain Studios in Adelaide, South Australia with Andy Kite at the helm works in songs that are that are perfunctory and without filler, recalling the steely anthems of METAL CHURCH, BLACKKOUT, early IRON MAIDEN, SAVATAGE, JUDAS PRIEST, LOUDNESS, RIOT, TWISTED SISTER and HEXX.

Blake and his Road Warrior bandmates find no topic to be taboo, reveling in lyrical topics that detail sex, historical conspiracy, pre-diluvial civilization and for extra measure, hotter sex. Citing maximal testosterone as the ultimate separator between themselves and the traditional heavy metal pack, Road Warrior are an unabashed throwback to a time when metal skirted conventional and politically correct norms. The title of Power says it all - this is Road Warriors statement of intent.

No Remorse Records 2018 - Brandnew 2nd Album lim. 500 - classic Heavy Metal for Fans of Fifth Angel, Judas Priest, Iron Maiden or Omen
STONEWALL was formed in September 2006 by mastermind Tony Warriors, in order to start a true heavy metal project. The early line up was a trio, with Tony covering drum and lead vocal duties. During the first 3 years of activity the band profounded all energies in covering metal classics (Fifth Angel, Omen, Judas Priest and Metal Church mainly) that influenced them and also writing their first songs. In 2011, Stonewall's first full length "Victims Of Evil" was released and it was warmly welcomed as one of the best underground records of that year, according to webzines from Italy and Spain. Due to personal problems, the band cannot tour to promote the album but in the meanwhile a version of Omen's classic "Be My Wench" was recorded by Stonewall and included to the Italian tribute album "All Fear The Axeman" (2012).

It was only after 3 years that the band came back with a stronger line up which toured Italy, sharing the stage with bands like Heir Apparent, Oliver/Dawson Saxon, Battle Ram, Iron Angel, Crying Steel and many more, getting more and more consent by press and fans.

DEATH - Individual Thought Patterns DCD (NEW*US DEATH/PROG METAL CLASSIC*CHUCK) – 14 €

Relapse Records 2015 – Slipcase Edition DCD - DEATH, the heavy metal institution founded, realized, and helmed by legendary guitarist Chuck Schuldiner, released the Individual Thought Patterns album (the follow-up to their watershed Human release) in 1993. Expectations were high following Human, but Schuldiner proved once again that he could rise to any occasion.

Individual Thought Patterns further honed the forward-thinking and progressive direction birthed with Human, and included ?The Philosopher?; arguably the best song to ever come from the world of extreme metal and to this date the most widely-recognized.

Remixed by DEATH mastering engineer Alan Douches (West West Side), remastered, repackaged and featuring tons of newly unearthed and previously unreleased demo and live tracks, this is the ultimate version of Individual Thought Patterns.

These songs are the roots of an entire genre: death metal. While this was only the second record DEATH released, it immediately cemented them as heavy metal icons. Meticulous care has been put into this reissue. The entire album, as well as the bonus material has been painstakingly remastered by Alan Douches (Mastodon, Nile, etc).

Deluxe 2xCD contains 50 minutes of previously unheard and unreleased Leprosy demos and rehearsal material housed in an embossed o-card package with a 24 page booklet featuring unseen pictures of the band as well as brand new liner notes from Ian Christie (Sirius/XM) and Jeremy Wagner (Broken Hope).

Now remixed under the watchful eye of longtime DEATH producer Jim Morris, Human 2011 represents the fully-realized version of this epic album. Banshee are a legendary US Power Metal band formed by guitarist Terry Dunn, who remains the main man behind the band to this day. The band was formed in 1986 and only a few months after they released their "Cry In the Night" EP, which was picked up by Metal Blade Records in 1988 for release. They also included the song "We Want You" on the Metal Massacre 9 compilation.

By the end of '88 the band's popularity had become such that they gained the attention of Atlantic Records. "Race Against Time" was released on Atlantic Records in 1988. Unfortunately the band was lumped in with the hair metal bands at the time, despite the fact that they had a much tougher, heavy metal sound. It wasn't until 1992 that we were given new music from the band. They released their independent album "Take 'Em By Storm", with the band parting ways shortly after.

The band got back together for reunion shows in 1999, 2000 and again in 2008. It wasn't until 2012 that the band released their fourth studio album Mindslave on Snowblind Records. The album featured vocalist George Call (ASKA, Violent Storm, Omen), original bassist Chuck Hopkins, and drummer Marty Schiermann. The album was a return to the heavier sound of "Cry in the Night." In fact, guitarist and songwriter Terry Dunn said that "Mindslave is the album that should have followed "Cry in the Night". In fact, it's much heavier than "Cry In the Night". According to Scott Waters own NoLifeTilMetal review, "The music fits squarely into the US power metal camp while retaining all the melody and hooks that Banshee have always been known for. The sound is a bit tougher, there may be a bit more groove and the lyrics are a little darker than their past albums, but overall Banshee still fits in that classic American power metal pocket...The sound is built around heavy, over-driven guitars, pounding drums, thunderous bass, screaming vocals and, of course, wicked guitar solos. George Call is a fantastic vocalist and really gives this album a ton of charisma. Comparisons to Tony Martin (Black Sabbath) and Ronnie James Dio would not be far off.

Terry Dunn had this to say, "Mindslave is a body of musical and lyrical work written between 2007 and 2012. The songs were influenced by life events I experienced and people in my life. I felt I needed to create an album that was the continuum of our EP, "Cry In The Night". I always wanted Banshee to be heavier with more interesting lyrics and I achieved that with "Mindslave", This would be my first attempt at writing lyrics for an album. I collaborated with George Call the singer on the record who did a amazing job. The songs are a bit darker but mesh well with the subject matter and lyrics. I feel that this is Banshee's best work to date..."

Let's be clear that Bride is without dispute THE most prolific Christian metal band ever.

Bride has no less than 24 full length releases under their belts, and every single one drips with passion, relevance, and musical perfection. No one has done it better for longer without quitting. No one. Long-time label partners, Retroactive Records are thrilled to unveil the epic return that fans have longed for and anticipated for 26 years - a new album that fully embraces the iconic Snakes.... era with massive hooks, relentless metal riffs, over-the-top vocals, and cutting edge lyrics. Welcome to the Jungle....with Snake Eyes (2018) the new Bride release that spews venom, and has all the bite fans can take. Brothers Dale and Troy Thompson have created another tour de force metal album that once again raises the bar, and satisfies the most demanding ear candy quotient. Snake Eyes offers nothing less than a fistful of ferocious rock anthems that will be clogging your brainwaves in the days ahead. File this one as one of greatest hard-rock records of its time. Yes, it's that good! Honestly, no one played metal better in 1992 when Snakes in the Playground released, and with Snake Eyes the band brings that same swagger.

CHEVALIER - Chapitre II (NEW*LIM.350 GREEN VINYL*SPEED METAL*ACID*SATAN'S FALL) – 18 €

Gates Of Hell Records2018 - Limited Edition of 350 copies in green vinyl!

Chevalier is Classic NWOBHM influenced Speed/Heavy Metal with Female Vocals ! For Fans of Portrait, Satan's Fall, Savage Master, Satan's Hallow, ACID

Blinding, take no prisoners, female-fronted speed metal from the land of a thousand lakes that shows no mercy!

Vinyl release of Chevaliers sold-out 2018 Chapitre II EP, includes previously-unreleased Brocas Helm cover: Fly High Rapidly becoming one of the most sought-after bands in the Scandinavian metal underground, Chevaliers brand of boundless speed metal is instantly identifiable in an age where thrash and speed metal has become sterile.

Too often, hitting the rewind button on speed or thrash metal reveals bands more interested in rehashing past glories than offering something new. The speed/thrash explosion of the mid-?00s displayed that if anything, its far too easy to slap on a jean jacket, queue up Bonded by Blood, form a band, borrow some riffs and release subpar, uninspired material.

Which brings us to Helsinki, Finland for an introduction to Chevalier, one of the most fiery and unique bands to hit the speed metal pavement in recent memory. Formed a mere two years ago, Chevalier (who consist of vocalist Emma Grönqvist, the guitar tandem of Tommi and Mikko, bassist Sebastian Bergman and drummer Joel), immediately got to work in their rehearsal room, whereupon they recorded their A Call to Arms debut EP. While their recent split with Legionnaire recorded in a traditional studio, the band opted to return to the comfortable environs of their rehearsal room for the tracking of Chaptire II. Sure enough, it has given Chevalier a throttling, reverb-soaked sound that catapults speak not only to the bands speedy roots, but the labyrinthine song constructions similar to NWOBHM upstarts Hell and Mercyful Fate. Chapitre II is the band?s most diverse release to date, as evidenced by the expanded song lengths and oftentimes adventurous song layouts. Grönqvist, in her banshee-wailing, scream-queen glory, turns in a riveting performance, holding steady against relentless thrash beats and triumphant gallops. The songs themselves tackle a wealth of topics: ?The Messenger? is about the rush to deliver a crucial message to one?s kingdom before paranoia kicks in; Wrath of Steel details a warriors thoughts on a bloody battlefield, and The Curse of the Dead Star is about impending doom from outer space.

The combination of fantasy and science fiction lyrics along with urgent, challenging, melody-laden speed metal instantly sets Chevalier apart from the pack, where every song is more than just a simple headbang-a-thon ? they are journeys onto themselves.

With their one and only, self-published 12" EP from 1984 Damascus carved their name into Heavy Metal history. Whereas in a lot of cases the "importance" of a band gets blown out of all proportion because of the rarity of the vinyl, this is not true regarding N.W.O.B.H.M. legend Damascus. The four songs on their "Open your Eyes" 12" are just so good musically that it is hard to overlook the sheer quality of this rather obscure outfit from the Merseyside area. Speaking strictly in musical terms, "Open your Eyes", "Something on my Mind", "Cold Horizon" and "Midnight Train" are brilliant Heavy Metal songs with a very strong production.

Relapse Records 2018 - Limited reissue 2018, 25th Anniversary edition, double silver vinyl, gatefold cover, deluxe limited edition one time pressing of DEATH's classic fifth album, featuring expanded packaging and a bonus LP of a live concert from Germany in 1993!

DEATH, the heavy metal institution founded, realized, and helmed by legendary guitarist Chuck Schuldiner, released the Individual Thought Patterns album (the follow-up to their watershed Human release) in 1993.

Expectations were high following Human, but Schuldiner proved once again that he could rise to any occasion. Individual Thought Patterns further honed the forward-thinking and progressive direction birthed with Human, and included "The Philosopher"; arguably the best song to ever come from the world of extreme metal and to this date the most widely-recognized.

Remixed by DEATH mastering engineer Alan Douches (West West Side), remastered, repackaged and featuring tons of newly unearthed and previously unreleased demo and live tracks, this is the ultimate version of Individual Thought Patterns.

DEATH - Leprosy DLP (NEW*LIM. MILKY CLEAR 30th Anniversary EDITION + LIVE BONUS) – 28 €

DEATH's immensely influential second album Leprosy originally released in 1988 was a pioneering album, building upon the thrash sounds of Metallica and Slayer but adding a previously unheard level of raw extremity. These songs are the roots of an entire genre: death metal. While this was only the second record DEATH release, it immediately cemented them as heavy metal icons.

NWOBHM Classic for Fans of Prying Mantis, Lionheart or Witchfynde

Formed in Scunthorpe, North Lincolnshire, in the late 1970s, New Wave Of British Heavy Metal protagonists Gaskin comprised of singer, guitarist, and all-around main man Paul Gaskin, bassist Stef Prokopczuk and drummer Dave Norman. The band's first demo from April 1980 featured the songs "Sweet Dream Maker", "Despiser", "End Of The World" and "I'm No Fool" and was recorded at Fairview studios in Hull. Through the demo's engineer, Ron Neave, who had worked with Witchfynde, the band got in contact with Witchfynde's label Rondelet Records and quickly sealed a record deal.

Live Gaskin opened up for Girlschool, Vardis and Wishbone Ash (to name just a few). Legendary Metal DJ Neal Kay got in touch with the band and the demo soon hit heavy rotation at the HM Bandwagon in London. In April 1981, Gaskin's first 7" single featuring "I'm No Fool" and "Sweet Dream Maker" was released.

The band had gradually evolved from a punk-tinged metal outfit towards a more melodic hard rock style in the vein of Praying Mantis or Lionheart, with Paul Gaskin's extraordinary guitar work being the main selling point of the group. A few critics have pointed out slight similarities between Gary Moore and Paul Gaskin in their soulful, blues-tinged approach to classic hard rock music.

Gaskin's debut album »End Of The World« was originally released in 1981. The band then hit the road playing live all across the United Kingdom to promote the record.

HAMMER KING - Poseidon Will Carry Us Home (LIM.200 BLUE VINYL*GER POWER METAL*MANOWAR*R.WILD) – 21 €

Cruz Del Sur 2018 - Brandnew limited Blue Vinyl (200), Insert, Download Code

Crucial third album from German classic power metal outfit Hammer King, Poseidon Will Carry Us Home features a series of taut, but also mighty songs, including their most adventurous feat to date: The Nautical Trilogy detailing the epic adventures of The King himself with former ROSS THE BOSS vocalist Patrick Fuchs on vocals

For Fans of Heavy Metal in the tradition of Manowar, Ross the Boss, Iron Maiden, Judas Priest with more than a reference to German Power Metal like Running Wild, Majesty, Heaven's Gate or Helloween

Simply a brilliant combination of melody and might, all wrapped up in a warm, natural production job by Powerwolfs Charles Greywolf.

Hammer Kings debut album Kingdom of the Hammer King saw the light of day in 2015, with King is Rising following a year after. Both albums quickly established the German four-piece (featuring vocalist/guitarist Titan Fox V., guitarist Gino Wilde, bassist K.K. Basement and drummer Dolph Macallan) as a fresh, powerful force in classic power metal circles.

After a fruitful studio session with Powerwolf bassist Charles Greywolf at his own Greywolf Studios, Hammer King has emerged with their pivotal third album, Poseidon Will Carry Us Home. Featuring 12 songs of pure and bombastic true metal, Poseidon Will Carry Us Home finds Hammer King honing in on their obvious strengths and expanding their sonic palette at the same time.

The bands trademark gallop and twin guitar interplay is complemented by the smooth, clean vocal delivery of Fox V., who turns in several spirited chorus choices on Warriors of Angelhill and Where the Hammer Hangs. Traditional cuts like The King Is A Deadly Machine and Battle Of War? are simply German metal at its fist-pumping best. However, it is the Nautical Trilogy that marks the greatest creative leap for Hammer King. Featuring the opening title track, At the Mercy of Waves and We Sail Cape Horn, the Nautical Trilogy is where Hammer Kings penchant for epic songcraft and heroic melodies takes flight, immersing the listener deep into the perilous sea as the band details the journey of The King. Hammer Kings immense, unyielding faith in The King is rewarded across Poseidon Will Carry Us Home. The formidable challenge of the third album has been met. Come along to the court of The King and bask in the glow of Hammer Kings greatest triumph to date. Long live The King!

FOR FANS OF: IRON MAIDEN, HOLY GRAIL, NIGHT DEMON, HIGH SPIRITS and AMBUSH

Inspired by growing up listening to epic metal legends such as Iron Maiden, Savatage, Helloween, and Judas Priest, multi-instrumentalist Andrew D'Cagna formed IRONFLAME in late-2016 as an outlet for crafting soaring, melodic heavy/power metal of his own. After the immensely positive response toward IRONFLAME's Divebomb Records debut, Lightning Strikes the Crown, motivation for a follow-up surfaced rather quickly. Utilizing the tried-and-true formula of "if it's not broken, don't fix it," the entire process remained largely the same—as fast and improvisational as before.

Rather than release another full-length album, the original concept was to compose a lyrically ambiguous five-song EP nodding to Greco-Roman mythology. The initial tracks paid homage to Nemesis (Goddess of Revenge), Prometheus (God of Fire), Ares (God of War), Theia (Goddess of Shining Light), and Orpheus (God of Music). Lyrics were penned and the ideas were presented to contributing lead guitarist Jim Dofka (Psycho Scream, Leather, Dofka), who loved the theme, but felt that Andrew should continue writing and flesh out another full-length after all.

Heeding Jim's advice, D'Cagna returned to the studio and decided to shift gears for the remaining compositions, which dwell largely upon the human condition through shared experiences such as temptation, seduction, betrayal, rage, and vengeance. Album closer, "Our Great Defender," is the one exception: an allegorical tribute to the late, great heavy metal icon Ronnie James Dio.

MANILLA ROAD - Metal (NEW*LIM.300 BONE VINYL*US EPIC METAL CLASSIC) – 19 €

High Roller Records 2018 - Brandnew reissue 2018, bone vinyl, ltd 300, 425gsm heavy cardboard cover, insert

"Metal" was Manilla Road's follow up album to their legendary debut "Invasion" (issued via their own Roadster Records in 1980). In contrast to other bands starting out, "Invasion" and "Metal" (originally released on Roadster in 1982) are not too similar in style and substance. According to Mark Shelton, there is a reason for that: "There was a whole album and another three song demo that had been recorded between the time that we recorded 'Invasion' and 'Metal'. I am referring to what eventually turned out to be released as 'Mark of the Beast'. So there was a learning curve between those two projects. 'Invasion' was recorded with analog guitar processors and 'Metal' was more like it should really be, with Marshall Amps miked up and turned up. Huge difference in the sound of the guitars on 'Metal'. I'm not saying 'Metal' was a great recording but it was a great leap forward for us at the time."

In contrast to "Invasion" there was only one single vinyl pressing of 2,000 copies with no re-pressing. Manilla Road went on to working on the "Crystal Logic" album almost immediately after "Metal" and never looked back.

MELIAH RAGE - Solitary Solitude (NEW*US THRASH METAL CLASSIC 1990*LIM.180gr. BLACK VINYL) – 19 €

Hammerheart Records 2018 - Classic US Thrash Metal from 1990, remastered 180gr. Black Vinyl ! For Fans of Overkill, Wargasm, Anthrax Despite still hanging on and actively performing even today, Meliah Rage still has not climbed the ladder of heavy metal. Back in 1990, they tried to leap forward a bit by hardening their sound, maybe become a bit more known. The result was their sophomore effort, the classic Metal album "Solitary Solitude". This album still retains some of the group's US Power Metal roots, but overall an even sharper turn towards thrash has been taken, resulting in a mostly mid-paced record that is comparable to Anthrax and even some of Overkill's stuff. The crew from "Kill To Survive" returns with a vengeance for this one. Once again Anthony Nichols and Jim Koury are the heroes, their guitar skills having been sharpened nicely in between albums. Their forceful rhythms and riffs are still remain strong, but their solos and breaks in particular are a big step up from the shredding on the debut.

Despite going down a thrashier path, much of the music on here is not all that fast. Much of it doesn't go past mid-paced, savoring riffage for speed. An aggressive onslaught of catchiness, delivered in the form of palm-muted text book thrash metal. There are a few hints of power metal and straight forward heavy metal textures, but for the most part however, this is straight forward bonafide thrash!

MELIAH RAGE - Kill To Survive (NEW*US SPEED METAL CLASSIC '88* LIM.180gr. BLACK VINYL) – 19 €

Hammerheart Records 2018 - Classic US Speed Metal from 1988, remastered 180gr. Black Vinyl !! For Fans of Metal Church, Metallica, Flotsam + Jetsam !

While Boston's Meliah Rage segued into thrashier territory with the admittedly-spectacular "Solitary Solitude", their finest moment has to be the debut "Kill to Survive". This record is a stone-cold heavy metal classic, fusing classic-sounding riffs with incendiary thrash intensity, epic vocals and an acrobatic, multifarious grasp of the disparate elements that contribute to the overall sound. One could say that "Kill to Survive" feels a lot like Metal Church, but there is some Metallica sprinkled in there as well amid an ephemeral smattering of Flotsam and Jetsam's eccentricities. A very compact listen at only seven tracks including the lengthy instrumental eponymous cut (on the original, the Japanese bonus track "Kill to Survive" is now added).

Some all-time classics for sure, like the stage-setting riff powerhouse "Beginning of the End," the more classic-sounding gruffness of "Enter the Darkness" and the fan's favourite: the swirling, thrashing madness of the spectacular "Impaling Doom," which shuffles through snappy, direct riffs while Mike Munro's threatening howl commands instant moshing. Deviations from this norm do exist, like the slower, lyrically atypical "Bates Motel", and the instrumental "Meliah Rage," which does get quite fucking heavy in spots.

Regardless, it's just a fucking cool style, with song structure that feels influenced more by traditional heavy metal than thrash, although the riffs have that spastic edge to them that spices up the already competent cultivation of atmosphere. Munro certainly doesn't wax philosophical or anything - Meliah Rage don't have much of a message outside of banging the head that doesn't fucking bang. Absolutely nothing on this record is less than Metal history, and the late '80s production really gives the grafted-together genre fusion a stable sonic footing. This is one of the better guitar sounds one has ever heard, tailor-made for the more trad riffs but loose enough to open up during the thrashing.

Gates of Hell Records / Cruz Del Sur 2018 - Limited Edition of 350 copies in BLACK VINYL + Insert

Brandnew Debut Album from Australian heavy/power Metal Warriors "ROAD WARRIOR" !

For Fans of early Iron Maiden, Dungeon, Running Wild, METAL CHURCH, BLACKKOUT, SAVATAGE, JUDAS PRIEST, LOUDNESS, RIOT, TWISTED SISTER and HEXX.

Hailing from South Australia, Road Warrior effectively recreate a time when heavy metal was oblivious to trends. The bands eight-song Power debut combines taut, muscular classic heavy metal compositions with an aesthetic that is unapologetic and utterly manly. Standing tall and firm, chests puffed out, leather-clad women at their side, songs of machismo and bravado at their disposal, all the while surveying the perilous field that is the global heavy metal scene is South Australias Road Warrior.

Their name, not surprisingly, was inspired by the popular Mad Max 2 movie (alternatively titled as The Road Warrior) that featured a young Mel Gibson portraying a hardened but humane Main Force Patrol officer who tries to uphold the law in dystopic Australia. Road Warrior soon caught the eye of Gates Of Hell Records after the release of their 2016 Ignition demo, prompting the two parties to put pen to paper for the release of the bands first-ever full-length album, Power, which is due October 5.

Featuring bassist/vocalist Denimal Blake, guitarist Overdryve and drummer Villon, Road Warrior was created out of necessity by Blake, a man who would be the first to tell you, Heavy metal is in my blood and cannot be denied. Blake, who is also known for his work in black/death metallers Cauldron Black Ram and avant-garde outfit StarGazer, has quenched his thirst for classic heavy metal in Road Warrior, compiling eight muscular, taut, mid-tempo numbers on Power. The album recorded at Against the Grain Studios in Adelaide, South Australia with Andy Kite at the helm works in songs that are that are perfunctory and without filler, recalling the steely anthems of METAL CHURCH, BLACKKOUT, early IRON MAIDEN, SAVATAGE, JUDAS PRIEST, LOUDNESS, RIOT, TWISTED SISTER and HEXX.

Blake and his Road Warrior bandmates find no topic to be taboo, reveling in lyrical topics that detail sex, historical conspiracy, pre-diluvial civilization and for extra measure, hotter sex. Citing maximal testosterone as the ultimate separator between themselves and the traditional heavy metal pack, Road Warrior are an unabashed throwback to a time when metal skirted conventional and politically correct norms. The title of Power says it all - this is Road Warriors statement of intent.

TIR - Demo 1984 - 7" (NEW*ITA HEAVY METAL '84*NWOBHM WORSHIP CLASSIC*TRESPASS) – 9 €

ACE Records 2018 - Limited Edition of 350 copies in Black Vinyl

TIR's 1984 demo tape was unearthed and resurrected on 7" vinyl EP !

Italian Heavy Metal band TIR burst out of Rome's underground in 1980.

Their impressive live shows featured walls of Marshalls, fire numbers and live snakes on stage.

In 1985 "Amsterdam", was included in the compilation LP Metallo Italia

Throughout the years TIR never compromised, maintaining their classic metal approach. Both musically, with their traditional NWOBHM-inspired sound. And visually, as if time had never passed.

In an age where many sound old school, TIR is the real deal. Check them out and spread the word!

That the current recording incarnation of The Skull features guitarist Rob Wrong (also Witch Mountain) and drummer Brian Dixon (ex-Cathedral) only makes them all the more of a supergroup

For Those Which are Asleep may have established The Skull as a unit separate from Trouble, but The Endless Road Turns Dark is where they forge a history of their own that, if we're lucky, they'll continue to build upon. It is nothing less than the work of masters.

High Roller Records 2018 - Brandnew Vinyl Edition - ltd 350, 150 x black + 200 x transparent ultra clear vinyl, 2 inserts

This is a Black Vinyl Edition !

Along with Iron Maiden, Saxon, Def Leppard and Diamond Head Whitley Bay's Tygers Of Pan Tang belonged to the Top 5 of the New Wave Of British Heavy Metal. The Tygers developed from a punk outfit called Trick, formed by guitarist Robb Weir in 1976. With Jess Cox on vocals, Rocky on bass and Brian Dick on drums, the Tygers Of Pan Tang found their first stable line up in 1978, fighting their way to the forefront of the NWOBHM.

Before issuing their highly regarded debut album »Wild Cat« in 1980, the band had recorded a selection of demos. Those demos were issued in 1986 under the name of »First Kill« containing early versions of classics such as "Slave To Freedom", "Euthanasia" and "Don't Take Nothing" as well as some unreleased gems ("Angel", "The Final Answer" and "Shakespeare Road"). The original liner notes said: "These songs were recorded in 1979/80. They were done in a live studio situation with no overdubs. Raw and exciting they capture the true sound and feel behind the original Tygers Of Pan Tang." With "Small Town Flirt" the compilation also included a track by Tyger Tyger, Robb Weir's and Jess Cox's rather unsuccessful post-Tygers Of Pan Tang venture.

»First Kill« was originally released in 1986 on Neat Records in the United Kingdom and Roadrunner Records in mainland Europe. The album has been out of print for more than 30 years and is being made available again on glorious vinyl through High Roller Records.
