Around late-'83/early-'84, a group called Discipline took shape in Pittsburgh, PA; transitioning from playing covers into an original hard rock/metal outfit. Discipline laid down a two-song demo that gained local momentum via the Pittsburgh Steel radio show before disbanding in 1985, at which time the remaining members—founder Doug Appel (guitar), Mark Menold (guitar), and Ned Lyden (drums)—joined forces with two former members of another Pittsburgh act called Overlord—bassist David Kendrick and vocalist Tim Aymar (later of Pharaoh, Control Denied, Psycho Scream, Triple X, and many more)—and thus 313 was born.

By year's end 1985, 313 had tracked a whopping 10 songs at Gamut Productions, achieving a striking balance between catchy, melodic hard rock and a heavier lean toward traditional metal. Continued writing, rehearsing, and gigging ensued, amidst which an aggressive, faster-paced drummer by the name of Kirk Henry entered the fold—aiding 313's continued growth toward harder-edged metal. Finally, during the winter of 1987/1988, the group settled into Aircraft Recording Studios to complete what should have been their debut full-length album. Sadly, these would prove to be 313's final sessions. After a failed contract with CBS-distributed PARC Records and a short-lived attempt to remain financially solvent as a cover act (operating under the name of Jet Screamer), mounting tensions within the lineup brought things to an end in 1988.

Now, just over 30 years later, Divebomb Records is thrilled to rescue this highly sought-after material from the depths of obscurity with a 19-song, near-complete discography from 313. Fully remastered by Jamie King at The Basement Recording, the disc's booklet is packed with photographs, press clippings, ephemera, and a nine-page interview with the band.

ALTAR OF OBLIVION - The Seven Spirits (PRE-ORDER*EPIC DOOM METAL*S.AETURNUS*A.KODEX) - 14 €

Shadow Kingdom Records 2019 – Brandnew Epic Doom Metal at its Best !

For Fans of CANDLEMASS, SOLITUDE AETURNUS, COUNT RAVEN, ATLANTIAN KODEX, PROCESSION and SOLSTICE

ALTAR OF OBLIVION are simply one of the best pure METAL bands around right now. The Danish kings proved it with 2012's classic Grand Gesture of Defiance album, they proved it with the teasingly short Barren Grounds EP in 2016, and they prove it more than ever with The Seven Spirits. Arguably more so than any of their no-less-considerable and widely celebrated records, here ALTAR OF OBLIVION skillfully glide from morose 'n' mournful DOOM to absolutely EPIC and daresay regal traditional metal, safely evading any cliches or easy classification whilst reverently adding to the rich and enduring lexicon of heavy metal. If anything, this is as close to total '80s metal as the band have gotten - but as always, done in that special ALTAR OF OBLIVION way.

ANGEL OF DAMNATION - Heathen Witchcraft (NEW*DOOM METAL/NWOBHM KILLER*CROSS VAULT*NOCTURNAL) - 14 €

ANGEL OF DAMNATION specialize in witching classic-style doom. Perhaps not surprisingly, it all comes courtesy of a quartet of underground diehards, including FRONT BEAST mainman Avenger on guitar, the rhythm section of Cross Vault (drummer Skullsplitter and Avenger also play in longtime cult faves Nocturnal), and prolific vocalist Gerrit Mutz (Sacred Steel, Battleroar, Dawn of Winter) under the ever-apt handle Doomcult Messiah. Together, they created the cult debut Carnal Philosophy, released in 2011. Those who had the opportunity to hear it thrilled to the aeons-old metal magick across its concise-yet-expansive 37 minutes. But now, with Heathen Witchcraft, ANGEL OF DAMNATION have perfected their style in a most haunting manner.

Like some lost relic of the NWOBHM, on Heathen Witchcraft, true to its title, ANGEL OF DAMNATION purge the witchfinder generals and celebrate the old-world splendor of medieval witchery. And compared to the no-less-considerable debut, on LP#2 do they create even longer and more enveloping epics which both firmly establish a fog-choked atmosphere and dispense with time-honored metal classicism. Of course, the album begins most spookily, hitting a fever pitch of harrowing horror on the title track, and then successively builds into (and finishes) with moody, galloping hard-chargers like "Lord of the Seven Churches" and "Tear Off the Veil of the Sun." Through it all, Doomcult Messiah is in top form, seemingly narrating these dark events in realtime.

The story of DAMIEN is far from over, but we can now have a more precise notion of how the beginning was. With the recordings present in the ST. Original vocalist Randy V exits the band and the vocal duties are delivered to Troy Moore, which brings a new vocal approach to the consolidated style of the band. In 1992, a promotional tape is recorded with 7 songs, which represents one of the best (and not so well-known) music moments of DAMIEN. It is common knowledge how the 90's decade turned out to be the darkest time for traditional heavy metal. Although, in 1995, DAMIEN contradicts the current status and puts out its third full length album... And justice must be made: ANGEL JUICE is clearly one of the best US Metal albums of the 90's! Fronted by Scott Miller as vocalist, Rob Brug on drums, together with DAMIEN masterminds Kevin 'Killer' Kekes (bass) and Chuck Stohl (guitars), ANGEL JUICE is a real heavy metal manifesto, full of intense and intricate compositions!

DEMON BITCH – Hellfriends (NEW*US METAL*2018 REISSUE*BROCAS HELM*CIRITH UNGOL) - 14 €

After their great Demo Compilation now this is their Debut album, amazing US True Heavy Metal far fans of early JAG PANZER, HEATHENS RAGE, CIRITH UNGOL, BROCAS HELM

DEMON BITCH is a traditional Heavy Metal band based out of Michigan, USA, with a taste for the strange and obscure realms of the genre. The history of the band dates back to 2011, when three longtime friends: Mars Weston, Logon Saton, and Samuel Ceckowski, came forth to cement their breed of Heavy Metal with their self titled 3-song demo, which was released in 2012. The line-up was promptly solidified with the integral addition of the second guitarist, Solon Saton, which allowed the group to play various live shows, and a US East Coast tour in 2013. In 2014, the complete line-up came forth with a follow-up to their demo, an EP titled "Death Is Hanging..." which was released by Dying Victims Productions in Europe and Evil Prevails Productions in Indonesia. The next, and greatest chapter was their debut full-length entitled "Hellfriends", which was released in June of 2016. A genuine love for the Hard and Heavy, from 80's legends of the underground such as MERCYFUL FATE, SATAN and ANGEL WITCH, to 70's Progressive and Hard Rock, provided a foundation for the band to stand upon, but it's the intangible inspiration of fantasy, camaraderie and the unknown, which sculpts the rare sounds by these Hellfriends of Demon Bitch.

Hailing from New York, FATAL CURSE are a veritable throwback to earlier, simpler times. Theirs is a roots-oriented sound squarely focusing on early speed metal on both sides of the Atlantic and America's contemporaneous power metal movement. No thrashing like a maniac here:

FATAL CURSE create classy 'n' cruising anthems of ageless heavy metal might on Breaking the Trance!

Indeed, much of FATAL CURSE's flash 'n' finesse stems from their power-trio lineup, with each member locked in to the other and pumping out seamless, gleaming-chrome odes to such timeless topics as "Blade in the Dark," "Priestess of Fire," "Chains of Eternity," and "Eyes of the Demon," among others. Nope, you "Can't Stop the Thunder" here, especially those lightning-explosive yet narrative leads at the hands of guitarist Dave Gruver.

GATEKEEPER - Grey Maiden (NEW*CAN EPIC METAL*VISIGOTH*BROCAS HELM*E.CHAMPION*SLOUGH FEG) - 11 €

Cruz Del Sur Records 2019 - Brandnew EP - CAN Epic Metal at its best - for Fans of Visigoth, Eternal Champion, Iron Maiden, Brocas Helm, Slough Feg

One of 2018s true melodic metal breakout acts returns with sterling four-song EP. Hot off the heels of their acclaimed East of Sun debut, Canadas Gatekeeper strike while the iron is hot with the Grey Maiden EP, featuring a scorching new cut, re-recording of an old favorite, acoustic song and cover of an obscure NWOBHM track. The metal scene moves fast. Hundreds of releases are made available every month from new bands jockeying for position or veteran outfits doing their best to keep up with the times. It simply may no longer be feasible to release an album, support it with some shows, then disappear for two years only to do it all over again. Such is the line of thinking for Canada's Gatekeeper, who return in 2019 with the four-song Grey Maiden EP.

The follow-up to their successful East of Sun full-length debut, Grey Maiden includes the brand-new title track and acoustic Moss, a re-recording of Tale of Twins from their first demo and a cover of Richard III by obscure NWOBHM outfit Tredgar. Gatekeeper - who consist of vocalist Jean-Pierre, guitarist/founding member Geoff Blackwell, lead guitarist Kenny Kroecher, bassist David Messier and drummer Tommy Tro - originally had the idea to record an EP after being asked by Skol Records to contribute to their NOWBHM compilation, Grandbreton Invasion. Figuring they were already going to be ensconced in the studio recording Richard III, Gatekeeper decided to waste no time in pulling the Grey Maiden EP together, providing their fans with an early 2019 treat.

The title track finds Gatekeeper at their melodic best, showcasing the bands penchant for twin guitar harmonies as well as the impressive range of Jean-Pierre, who ably weaves between heavy, complex riffing. In fact, Jean-Pierres work on Grey Maiden, Tale of Twins and Richard III, showcase a vocalist now coming into his own, something that Blackwell attests to the pairs deep well of ideas and constant flow of communication between the bands home base of Vancouver and Jean-Pierres current locale of Portland, Oregon. Blackwell, the consummate riff and melody writer, JP, a vocalist who likes to think outside of the box, are often looking for unique rhythmic patterns to suit his versatile vocals.

HAUNT - If Icarus Could Fly (PRE-ORDER*US METAL KILLER*IRONFLAME*NIGHT DEMON) - 14 €

Shadow Kingdom Records 2019 - Brandnew massively anticipated second album of America's HAUNT, If Icarus Could Fly !

A lot of great Guitar Harmonies over an classic 80's oldschool feeling and production !

For Fans of Angel Witch, DiAnno's Iron Maiden, Ironflame, Cauldron, Night Demon

Simply put, HAUNT is the new face of traditional heavy metal & hard rock. Masterful despite their young years as a band, HAUNT began as a solo project of Beastmaker frontman Trevor William Church and promptly self-released its debut EP, Luminous Eyes, during the summer of 2017. Not long after, the EP was picked up for physical release by SHADOW KINGDOM, and henceforth did HAUNT begin its ascent...

With Luminous Eyes reaping widespread acclaim from both fans and critics alike, the stage was set for HAUNT's inevitable debut album. Aptly titled Burst Into Flame, the band's full-length debut was released during the summer of 2018 and promptly burned a whole new path for HAUNT. Now expanded into a full working lineup, Church's vision proved infinitely powerful and poignant: here, HAUNT's blend of turn-of-the-'80s heavy metal with touches of '70s hard rock positively exploded with electricity and excitement at every turn. And that electricity reached a fever pitch as the band hit the touring circuit thereafter, culminating with a rapturously received run on the Speed of the Wizard tour supporting High on Fire, Municipal Waste, and Toxic Holocaust.

Not ones to rest on their considerable laurels, HAUNT are back less than a year after their debut album with the even stronger If Icarus Could Fly. Taking everything that was so magical about Burst Into Flame - compact songcraft, immediately memorable hooks, impassioned playing, an understated emotional element that elevates everything above mere party fodder - and fine-tuning it to near-perfection, If Icarus Could Fly is a step-up on every level.

And once again, at every turn there's an absolute ANTHEM, perhaps best exemplified by the unforgettable "It's In My Hands," a masterpiece of a song that will likely be the "hit" of the album. Elsewhere, HAUNT have simply sharpened their attack with seemingly effortless ease: heavy and heartfelt, with an expressiveness that encapsulates everything that's so engaging and enduring about traditional metal. Simply put, If Icarus Could Fly is a natural progression from HAUNT's debut album and the next chapter in their saga as new kings.

10 from 10 Points at Metal Temple

The Texas-based "super metal" quartet IMMORTAL GUARDIAN – whose founding member, Gabriel Guardian, has earned extensive notoriety for his ability to shred on guitar and keyboard simultaneously – delivers ten face-melting blasts of shred on their debut full-length, "Age of Revolution." Hailing from the same state as guitar greats Dimebag Darrell and Stevie Ray Vaughan, IMMORTAL GUARDIAN proudly fly the flag of musical innovation and virtuosity for the Lone Star State. Over the past few years, the group has released two acclaimed EPs, "Revolution Part I" (produced by Roy Z of Halford/Bruce Dickinson fame) and "Super Metal: Edition Z," that showcased a full-frontal assault of anthemic melodies, technical rhythms, furious shred and high-flying vocals by Brazilian singer Carlos Zema (Outworld).

In support of their EPs, the group has made jaws drop on stages in not only their home state – where they've performed alongside some of the biggest names in metal, including Judas Priest, Dragonforce, Kamelot, Symphony X, Sonata Arctica, Slayer, Metal Church, Soilwork and Steve Vai – but also abroad in countries such as Brazil and Russia, and during high-profile performances at ESPN's X Games, South By Southwest and the Fun Fun Fun Fest. In addition, Gabriel Guardian has developed an extensive following on YouTube, where his unique dual-instrument covers of classics by the likes of Iron Maiden, Pantera and Guns N' Roses have garnered hundreds of thousands of views. His virtuosity was also recently showcased on the MTV program "Amazingness." This summer, Gabriel will tour North America extensively as a guest member of video game metal icons PowerGlove. The band will also play several shows this summer with Exmortus, Hatchet and label mates The Absence.

Cult Metal Classic Records 2019 – Brandnew limited to 500 DCD - SWE HARD ROCK Anthology

For Fans of Silver Mountain, Overdrive, Treat, Universe

Legendary Swedish hard rock / metallers INTERACTION were one of the oldest Swedish hard rock bands having been formed in the late 70's but also existing under different names before 1979. With a career spanning over 15 years, the band released a series of great demos, songs, compilations and albums and it was a matter of time until all this material was available as a great anthology.

Janne Stark, the well known Swedish guitar player and author of the Swedish Hard Rock & Heavy Metal Encyclopedia, dropped the idea and set the wheels in motion and thanks to him, pretty soon you'll be holding in your hands a double disc deluxe CD reissue featuring almost everything the band has ever written, including story on the band and cool photos from the entire history of the band.

If you're into 70's / 80's hard rock and heavy metal, that successfully blends Thin Lizzy type hard rock with melodic metal and pomp rock touches, then INTERACTION will definitely be your thing.

The CD reissue will be entitled "Warriors" and will be limited to 500 copies.

KATELLA – Shades Of Grey/Freakshow 47 (NEW*US METAL*ARMORED SAINT*OMEN*SAVATAGE) - 14 €

Arkeyn Steel Records 2018 - Brandnew melodic US Power Metal 1995/2000 - Limited Edition of 500 copies !

Katella from Wisconsin, USA were founded in 1990 and from their very first days they followed a very specific direction playing their favorite music: Melodic Heavy Metal.

For Fans of early QUEENSRYCHE, LIZZY BORDEN, VICIOUS RUMORS, ARMORED SAINT ("Symbol..." era), WILD DOGS ("Reign..." era), RIOT ("Restless..." era), early LILLIAN AXE, (heavier moments of) WASP, OMEN ("Escape..." era) and SAVATAGE

Their sound evolved throughout the years and got stronger and richer, with their 1995 "Shades Of Grey" CD being a great example of their musical style. It features some of the most fantastic vocal melodies, explosive riffing and best melodic guitar leads someone can hear. Only 1000 copies were pressed on the small Megalithic Records label and as a result the CD went out of print very quickly.

Things are pretty much the same -if not better- on their "Freakshow 47" album that was privately released by the band back on 2000. Another 1000 copies were pressed and they were gone really fast.

Arkeyn Steel Records presents both of their releases in one CD. Remastered, packed with lyrics and unreleased photos, including a bonus song from the band's unreleased 1990 demo "Winds Of Change".

This is amazing first class Melodic Heavy Metal delivered by a band who knew how to compose magnificent songs! For sure not to be missed!

LATENT FURY/ION VEIN – Demo 1991/Beyond Tomorrow (NEW*US METAL*CRIMSON GLORY*QUEENSRYCHE) - 14 €

Arkeyn Steel Records 2018 - FINALLY! One of the most important demo tapes of the second wave of US Power Prog Metal plus one of the best Power/Prog debut albums of the same 90s era, are officially reissued on a combo release. One guitarist, two bands, one release - Limited Edition of 500 copies !

US Power/Prog excellence. The one and only Latent Fury demo plus the Ion Vein debut album, both out of print since ages. Re-released together for the first time, remastered and packed with unreleased songs, lyrics and never before seen photos.

LATENT FURY from Chicago, Illinois were formed back in 1989 by guitarist Chris Lotesto and vocalist Tom Sobczynski. In 1991 they released their one and only, same titled, demo tape which considered as an absolute holy grail on the US Power/Prog Metal universe. Three masterpieces in the vein of old FATES WARNING, CRIMSON GLORY and QUEENSRYCHE were included in the tape. The band started to take local stages by storm. Their shows were awesome and they played even more originals. Unfortunately, the band didn't last long. In 1994 they split up without managing to return on the studio to record the rest of their material. Lotesto moved forward to form ION VEIN with vocalist, Russ Klimczak.

"Beyond Tomorrow", the debut album by ION VEIN was released in 1999, representing an evolved, more melodic and complex sound combining the vibes of SAVATAGE and QUEENSRYCHE on a solid and inspired musical result. The album generated a huge impact on the underground and it is considered today as one of the best releases of the 90s US Power Prog Metal scene. It was released by the band's own Majesphere Records and it became out of print very quickly, remaining without a reissue until today.

Arkeyn Steel Records packs the LATENT FURY demo and the ION VEIN debut, adding as bonus the unreleased LATENT FURY originals that were only recorded live on the band's shows.

This is a key reissue for everyone deeply focused on the US Power Prog Metal. Everything -even the live recordings- is remastered from scratch for the best possible sound. Lyrics, info and lots of unreleased photos are also included. The messenger flies beyond tomorrow offering you the ultimate US Power Prog experience. Do not miss it!

MAGIC CIRCLE - Departed Souls (NEW*US DOOM/NWOBHM*ORCHID*PAGAN ALTAR*SABBATH) - 14 €

20 Buck Spin 2019 – Pre-Order: 01.03.2019 – Brandnew 3rd Album - US EPIC/DOOM Metal stuff again - Magic Circle plays this Epic, NWOBHM-influenced Metal with wonderful, melancholic Melodies and a great Voice - highly recommended !

For Fans Hour of 13, Black Sabbath (OZZY period), Trouble, Cirith Ungol, Crypt Sermon, Pagan Altar, WITCHFYNDE, Orchid and The Lamp of Thoth.

Magic Circle's self-titled debut hit the true doom scene like a revelation in 2013. Without hype or hyperbole the band effortlessly invoked fundamental rock n roll truths putting their own stamp on early Heavy Metal darkness. Joining 20 Buck Spin for follow-up 'Journey Blind', Magic Circle again offered that unmistakable classic sound with natural unforced evolution. On their third LP, 'Departed Souls', Magic Circle present an expansive hard rock vision, adorning their signature Doom with seamless psych and prog ornamentation.

'Departed Souls' reveals a Magic Circle delving more deeply into '70s sounds, expanding farther outward from the primordial lommic matter of their birth. Heavy Sabbathian riffs abound, but Magic Circle opens up, stretches out, exposing different shades that recall the moody peaks and valleys of the classic hard rock LPs of that era. Acoustic 12-string, tablas and Fender Rhodes appear in lush moments of kaleidoscopic decadence woven into the fabric of the pounding elemental thunder. All the while vocalist Brendan Radigan seals the deal as one of the premier heavy metal singers of the 21st century, deliverin' that Wagnerian dynamism and vigor that screams from the heavens and becomes thoroughly controlled in moments of quiet solemnity.

Though all members are busy with other projects and other lives when these five men come together in the Magic Circle, the chemistry and palpable rock n roll exhilaration reminds us that this band ain't never gonna die with the herd.

Fantastic Double Leads, great Hooks and awesome Vocals !

After the great Serpent Album and the Debut "Snakes and Liars" this is the 2nd release under their Monicker "NEKROMANT" ! Killer Album - one of TOP 3 in 2018 for me !

Hailing from the Swedish city of Vänersborg, the band – formerly known as Serpent – are renowned for delivering a raw, gritty and direct assault, cast in the fires and a dedicated melting pot of metallic inspirations which include Black Sabbath, Pentagram and Texan rockers, The Sword.

Following the release of their self-titled album in late 2015 on Transubstans Records, the band played extensively both home and abroad at large shows such as Sweden Rock Festival and toured with fellow Swedes, Cities of Mars. Their album Nekromant (released under the band's original name) received unanimous praise by critics and fans alike and led to a very successful start in 2016 for the trio. Having caught the attention of Ripple Music, and we immediately fell in love with the way the band wore their influences proudly on their sleeves, with the dark and heavy majesty of Snakes & Liars (2017) Nekromant undoubtedly carried a torch for old-school metal.

Crushing Notes Entertainment 2019 - Brandnew Fantastic US Metal - Remastered CD Digipak 2018 - now for the first time on real Silver pressed CD !

Toby Knapp + the awesome Michael Grant (RIP) with an US Epic Metal Masterpiece for Fans of Crescent Shield or Pharaoh !

The music was initially sourced from the original 4 track demo cassettes recorded in 2002. In 2014 much of the music was restored and re-recorded by (guitarist) Toby Knapp using Michael Grant's vocals taken from those 2002 cassettes. In 2018 Crushing Notes Entertainment recruited Onward's "Reawaken" album producer/engineer Brett Hansen to re-master the entire project using state of the art equipment at Audio Art Studios in Las Vegas, NV.

Guitarist Toby Knapp and vocalist Michael Grant (R.I.P.) created this music as very raw demo ideas for a future Onward studio album. Onward disbanded in 2003 and Grant passed away in 2012. The Music was forgotten and unfinished. In 2014 Knapp revisited the recordings and built up a new musical soundtrack around the decade old, deteriorating cassette. After doing so, the work sounded more like a cohesive "official" album and was released in very limited quantities through Shredguy Records.

Many listeners, including Knapp, felt this was Onward's best material as it truly explored new directions Knapp was planning on taking the Music.

For Fans of Agent Steel, Hallows Eve, Living Death, Nasty Savage, Razor, Evil Invaders

A fixture on the true metal scene, Massachusetts' SEAX are a staunchly DIY and hard-touring group. Founded in 2009 with the intent of playing classic heavy metal, it was 2012 when SEAX's first album arrived with the aptly titled High on Metal. Completely DIY, it set the standard for which the band would follow. Two years later came To the Grave, further intensifying SEAX's by-now-speeding sound and underlining their independent spirit. But it was 2016's lay-it-all-on-the-line Speed Metal Mania where the band really came into their own, seemingly perfecting their infectiously classic speed metal sound. That is, until Fallout Rituals, where SEAX have truly come into their own. Like some long-lost Cobra Records or Mausoleum release from '84, SEAX come roaring outta the gates with gleaming chrome and billowing exhaust, heading down the highway literally high on heavy metal. Old Canadian and German gods are hailed, and they see that all is right and righteous with SEAX; there's no faking this kind of authenticity, this timeless and unbending pursuit of total speed metal. Soaring vocals, exploding solos, locomotive drive, clear-yet-cutting production, absolute desire and desperation at every turn: Fallout Rituals is once again aptly titled, so focused is their pistons-pumping push. Naturally, elder British spirits likewise linger across this landscape, and they are suitably pleased with SEAX's speed metal mania.

Formed in 1989 by the trio Currie Powers (drums/vocals), Todd Stevens (guitar/vocals), and Jon Weed (bass/vocals) and later recruiting frontman Andy Hogg, once SHAKE THE FAITH were a solid four-piece band they would quickly hit the hard rock club circuit. A steady stream of gigs would follow including several bookings sharing the stage with many of the larger touring acts of the time. All the while SHAKE THE FAITH was building a fair size audience in the area.

In 1990 SHAKE THE FAITH would record a 6-song demo that upon its release began to circulate quickly through the rock scene garnishing the band plenty of radio play and press.

SINS OF THE DAMNED - Striking the Bell of Death (NEW*SPEED METAL CHILE*RAZOR*WHIPLASH) - 14 €

Shadow Kingdom Records 2019 - Brandnew Speed Metal from Chile

For Fans of Razor, Whiplash, Exciter, and Deathrow (Germany), Desaster, Gospel of the Horns, DEATHHAMMER, and BARBARIAN.

Formed in 2013 in the city of Santiago, SINS OF THE DAMNED have become a cult institution in their homeland of Chile, itself a hotbed of heavy metal mania. The band self-released their first couple of demos, totally DIY but 100% professional, and prodigiously perfected their craft with subsequent short-length releases every year since. And now, at last arrives the full distillation of SINS OF THE DAMNED's eternal, unyielding aesthetic: the full-length Striking the Bell of Death!

For a debut album, Striking the Bell of Death does everything it should: consolidate all of SINS OF THE DAMNED's strengths, unveil previously hinted-at elements, and deliver them in a powerful production. The beauty (or is that ugliness?) of SINS OF THE DAMNED is that the quartet maintain such a classic sound, drinking deeply of metal's rich history, and yet exude a freshness of approach that results in something legitimately, respectably modern. Striking the Bell of Death is full, furious proof of that, exhibiting absolutely masterful songwriting - hooks, energy, passion, EVERYTHING - while roughening it up in a manner almost blackened (but not too much!).

SKITZO (NJ) – Skitzo (NEW+US TECH/THRASH METAL*ANNIHILATOR*APOCRYPHA*HERETIC) - 15 €

Limited edition CD – only 500 units pressed worldwide – digitally remastered – band supplied photos – full color 20 page booklet with new band notes

For Fans of Apocrypha, Heretic, Annihilator and Cacophony

New Jersey progressive thrashers SKITZO formed from the ashes of a band called Prophecy in the mid-'80s. The initial lineup—Bill Buchan (guitar), Shaun College (bass), Chris Corley (guitar), and Brendan Farragher (drums)—wrote and rehearsed seven nights a week, constructing a catalog of complex instrumentals while searching for the right vocalist. That vocalist, George Gabriel, was finally secured in 1988/1989, and SKITZO officially set out to craft their own brand of dynamic, technically demanding music influenced by traditional and thrash metal, classical, jazz/fusion, etc. The group's debut three-song demo, 1990's Progressive Psychosis, was recorded at Kajem Studios (Queensryche, Dream Theater, Metal Church, etc.) in Pennsylvania, and quickly achieved college radio support through WSOU and WDHA. Meanwhile, SKITZO remained focused on live performances (alongside the likes of Pantera, Type O Negative, Savatage, Brutal Truth, etc.) and nightly rehearsals—at times practicing in complete darkness for the added challenge!?

Five more songs were laid down in 1992 at Butterfield's Recording Studios in New Jersey by Steve Evetts (Symphony X, The Dillinger Escape Plan, etc.), applying a crisper and more powerful sound to the band's increasingly elaborate musicianship. Unfortunately, this incredible demo was never released. Despite having showcased for labels such as Megaforce and Epic, among others, SKITZO fell apart before they could pay off the final studio bill. The DATs literally collected dust on a shelf at Trax East Recording Studio for more than two decades...

Until now, as—more than 25 years after the fact—Divebomb Records shines a new light on SKITZO's should-be-legendary discography.

Completely remastered by Jamie King at The Basement Recording, the CD comes housed alongside a 20-page booklet jammed with photos, flyers, lyrics, and a retrospective interview with the band.

The first part of these sessions was released a couple of years ago. This limited release presents the rest of the cream of the crop.

THE NECROMANCERS - Of Blood and Wine (NEW*LIM.DIGIPAK*70's OCCULT HARD ROCK*GHOST*KADAVAR) - 14 €

Ripple Music 2018 - US Direct Import ! CD Digipak Edition

For Fans of Black Sabbath, Ghost, Kadavar, Vintage Caravan or Year of the Goat mixed with a lot of NWOBHM and some Grand Magus / Manowar Epic !

Their debut album was the surprise occult doom release of the year last year, now The Necromancers come roaring back with their follow up release Of Blood and Wine. Present are all the same intense moods and themes, with even better songwriting and heavier riffs!

Drawing on antiquated inspirations in mythology, religion, fantastical tales from European literature and an obsession for classic horror cinema, The Necromancers are a curious alliance of musicians, and together are a strange beast to behold.

Following on from the release of their debut album last year on Ripple Music, the French quartet return with the first taste of their eagerly awaited follow up, Of Blood and Wine, with 'Secular Lord'; a song about which explores the legend of Vlad 'The Empalor' Tepes. Experimenting with progressive rock, heavy psych and the 70s pagan/proto-metal of bands like Black Sabbath and Coven, they take these influences, throw in the urgency of NWOBHM and douse the entire lot in lysergic illusions. All with a mind to create an album a sound for ages.

THE SABBATHIAN - Latum Alterum / Ritual Rites DCD (NEW*LIM.ED.*EPIC/DOOM METAL*CANDLEMASS) - 17 €

Svart Records 2018 - Brandnew Debut Album - limited DCD incl. Ritual Rites EP for the first time on CD !

Killer Epic Doom/Occult Metal EP from The Sabbathian with awesome, female Vocals - the new Band from Chad Davis (Hour of 13)

For Fans of Candlemass, Hour of 13, Vestal Claret, Avatarium, Jex Thoth, Witch Mountain, Bathory

The words "highly anticipated" come quickly to mind when talking of the US-Norwegian project The Sabbathian and the chance that there will be new material from them.

The band, formed by Chad Davis (Hour of 13 and many more) and Anette Uvaas Gulbrandsen (Nåttsòl), released their debut EP, Ritual Rites, on Svart Records in 2014. The duo's personal approach to old-school doom won over many metal hearts, and the wait for new material is over in January 2019.

The Sabbathian's debut full-length, Latum Alterum, is a limited double CD (including Ritual Rites EP on CD for the first time).

The album is a considerably darker affair compared to the EP, a step away from the origins of doom metal and towards the heavier vistas traversed by Nordic metalmongers such as Bathory or Candlemass. Vocalist Anette Uvaas Gulbrandsen describes the album thus: "The overall theme can be described as slightly morbid, as it is very much about passing over to the other side – latum alterum. The odd one out is the song 'Embrace The Dark,' which retains the sound of the EP. The intro and outro tracks are meant as a way of blessing the souls on their journey." "The way we work on the music takes time," adds Gulbrandsen. "Chad would send me the music and I then work my way through the songs. As the music is quite different now, I must admit I had quite a struggle at first with some of the tracks. My best friend Liv Kristine Espenæs has joined me on one track, mainly because I thought her voice would lift the song and also because I love her voice. I have sung on several songs with her ex-band Leaves' Eyes, and now I felt it was her turn to sing on something I made."

TRAUMA - As The World Dies (NEW*US METAL*FLOTSAM*HADES*M.CHURCH*OVERKILL) - 14 €

Pure Steel Records 2018 – Brandnew US-Metal ! For Fans of Flotsam And Jetsam, Hades, Metal Church, Heretic, Armored Saint, Savage Grace or early Overkill

Trauma first hit the scene in 1982 and counted Cliff Burton as one of its members back in their early days. They had a big hit in '84 with their album Scratch And Scream and then they just disappeared until 2015 and released Rapture And Wrath to coincide with the remastered edition of the aforementioned album. Fast forward nearly three years and they are ready to unleash As The World Dies, a classic traditional Heavy Metal album with a tasty thrashy twist. Ten tracks crammed full of melodic vocals, scorching riffs and solos with a big back beat of thumping drums and bass. Rob Halfordesque 'Painkiller' vocals and a tasty drum beat just seems to seep into your brain and fester and when the guitars come out to play you will think you have, unlike the title of the song, gone to heaven with savage riff and nice little solo thrown in for good measure.

TRAVELER - Same (NEW*CAN METAL*IRON MAIDEN*FORTRESS*VISIGOTH*GATEKEEPER*JUDAS PRIEST) - 14 €

Gates Of Hell Records 2018 - Brandnew Debut Album !

CAN Classic Metal Killer for Fans of Iron Maiden, Fortress, Accept, Judas Priest, Gatekeeper, Eternal Champion, Visigoth, Striker, Cauldron Screaming leads, soaring vocals, heart-pounding drums - Canadas Traveler has arrived to take no prisoners! On their debut eight-song full-length, Canadas Traveler effortlessly weave a classic metal web that propels the style into the future without forsaking the past. Shortly after the early 2018 release of their debut demo, Canadas Traveler had a good problem on its hands. The reception -from fans and critics was so positive that founding member/primary songwriter/guitarist Matt Ries (also of Gatekrashör and Hrom) had no choice but to take what was originally a side-project and turn it into a fullfledged band.

Before he did that, Traveler teamed with Finlands Coronary for a split release via Gates of Hell Records, that much like the demo, was hailed across the metal scene for its pounding, up-tempo, classic metal tenacity. Now, in 2019, Traveler is ready to meet the demand with its self-titled first full-length album. Traveler, who are now rounded out by vocalist Jean-Pierre Abboud (also of Gatekeeper), second guitarist Toryin "Junior" Schadlich, bassist Dave Arnold (ex-Striker) and drummer Chad Vallier, tracked drums at AB Records, guitars at Riess home studio and vocals at Richhobo Studios. Ries cites his bandmembers musical abilities as one of the driving factors behind the albums multi-faceted nature, from Abbouds potent delivery, to Schadlichs shredding capabilities and the powerful rhythm section of Arnold and Vallier. A complete lineup will also be the realization of another of Riess goals: To make Traveler a live band. The self-titled album comprises three songs from the bands debut demo, along with five brand-new compositions. Ries worked with Abboud to come up with some of his most demanding vocal parts to date - ensuring a lively, spirited approach that captures the vocalists sheer strength and diverse range. Abboud also has the less-than-enviable task of singing songs in E-standard tuning. One of the most rigorous tunings that is often reserved for vocalists with the ability to reach the rafters,Abboud and Ries show theyre perfect torchbearers for the time-honored style of classic metal where big, brash choruses, soaring leads and manic drums lead the way. Travelers let it rip approach pays dividends across the self-titled album. Whereas their debut demo and split with Coronary merely scratched the surface, Traveler has gone above and beyond, now heading into terrain where only a few will dare to go. Feel the reign of the Starbreaker! - CONFIRMED FOR KEEP IT TRUE FESTIVAL 2019!

WILLIAM J TSAMIS - Lordian Winds & Sea of Tranquility (NEW*US EPIC*WARLORD*LIM.500 DCD) -16 €

High Roller Records 2019 - Brandnew double CD, 8 page booklet, ltd 500, mastered by Patrick W. Engel at TEMPLE OF DISHARMONY William J Tsamis of is one of the most talented heavy metal musicians of all time. In his early years, he was influenced by bands like Black Sabbath, Rainbow, Scorpions, UFO and Rush, practising on guitar from a very young age. Music was in his blood, so he moved to Los Angeles and at the age of 18 along with Mark Zonder on drums formed Warlord, releasing classic records such as »Deliver Us« or »And The Cannons Of Destruction Have Begun...«.

When Warlord fell into oblivion in 1985, Tsamis was already playing classical guitar and thinking of altering his musical vision. When he started moving in a classical direction, he took the risk to work with a classical producer who had this idea of a grand epic story, so Tsamis came up with "My Name Is Man". He explains: "It would be like »2112«. It's a story about everyman, represented by one man. His story is everyman's story."

Consisting of "My Name Is Man", "Stygian Passage", "Dark Civilization" and "In The Name Of God", the »Lordian Winds« demos are actually the rough cuts of the "My Name Is Man" project, that was recorded in an 8-track studio with William J Tsamis on guitars and keyboards, Rick Anderson on vocals (who actually was Damien King III for Warlord) and also Dave Watry on bass. The project just lasted for few months during 1985-1986 and in 1987, William moved to Florida and decided to go to university to study philosophy and theology.

The CD edition of »Lordian Winds« adds »Sea Of Tranquility«, a colourful soundscape of beautiful and emotional music, directly from the heart and soul of a highly talented musician. William J Tsamis comments: "The music was written during a time of great despair in my life. It is music for the contemplative listener and music for the inspiration. I have always told people that if they truly want to understand who I am, then they should listen carefully to »Sea Of Tranquility«. It is within those compositions where my soul lives."

TYR – Illusion (NEW*LIM.500 US TEXAS METAL*QUEENSRYPHE*LEATHERWOLF*SAVATAGE) - 14 €

Arkeyn Steel Records 2019 - Limited Edition 500 Handnumbered CDs – fantastic US Texas Metal – this is NOT the Viking Metal Band from Färöer islands !

For Fans of RIOT, SAVATAGE, LEATHERWOLF and QUEENSRYPHE

Their “Illusion” CD which was privately released back in 2002 was always a top pick in our playlist and we always thought that this material deserves a proper re-release.

Musically this band is an amazing mixture of RIOT, SAVATAGE, LEATHERWOLF and QUEENSRYPHE. Their amazing songwriting is their top feature. Expect no fillers here. Top class, inspired riffing, catchy vocal melodies and of course those excellent lead guitar parts are making this band an absolute must for everyone into US Metal.

TYR was formed back in 1998 in Dallas, Texas, USA. In 1999 a 5-song promotional demo was recorded and released as a limited edition of 50 copies. The massive airplay of the demo and the regular shows around their area generated quite an attention around the band.

Their next step was their “Illusion” debut which was first released as a very limited edition of 30 CD-r copies that were offered on a band’s show back on 2001. This edition featured a little different artwork compared to the official private pressing of 1000 copies that was finally released on April of 2002. Needless to say that the CD was sold out quite fast and became one of the most desired items for the US Metal CD collectors worldwide. No other recordings were made by TYR except the track “You Can’t Run Forever” that was recorded back in 2007 before their final disbanding.

Arkeyn Steel Records gathered all the band’s recordings and now presents a re-release of the “Illusion” CD featuring the 1999 demo plus the unreleased 2007 track as well. Everything is remastered from scratch, never before seen photos are added, lyrics and info complete the package, making this release the ultimate re-presentation of TYR’s saga.

Shadow Kingdom 2019 – Brandnew Epic Doom Metal at its Best !

Limited Edition in Black Vinyl, gatefold, insert – 100 copies only !

For Fans of CANDLEMASS, SOLITUDE AETURNUS, COUNT RAVEN, ATLANTEAN KODEX, PROCESSION and SOLSTICE

ALTAR OF OBLIVION are simply one of the best pure METAL bands around right now. The Danish kings proved it with 2012's classic Grand Gesture of Defiance album, they proved it with the teasingly short Barren Grounds EP in 2016, and they prove it more than ever with The Seven Spirits. Arguably more so than any of their no-less-considerable and widely celebrated records, here ALTAR OF OBLIVION skillfully glide from morose 'n' mournful DOOM to absolutely EPIC and daresay regal traditional metal, safely evading any cliches or easy classification whilst reverently adding to the rich and enduring lexicon of heavy metal. If anything, this is as close to total '80s metal as the band have gotten - but as always, done in that special ALTAR OF OBLIVION way.

In many ways, each of the seven tracks comprising The Seven Spirits is a tale in its own right, rife with both bloodlust and tragedy, redemption and remorse. They wind along many roads, some darker than others, with a robust 'n' rumbling heft that's simply ALTAR OF OBLIVION's heaviest production to date. And yet, for all this fleet-footed thunder, those seven songs remain as passionate and emotional as anything around. Just hearing Mik Mentor's pipes is believing, and on The Seven Spirits, the frontman delivers a performance like no other. These songs could bring you to tears - or galvanize you to conquer any foe before you. The choice is yours across these 41 unforgettable minutes! Six years is an interminable length of time between albums, but when the standards are as high as they are with ALTAR OF OBLIVION, there's just no arguing against perfection. Behold The Seven Spirits and bow before their majesty!

Totally aptly titled, Too Fast for the Flames is the perfect two-song distillation of the BEWITCHER aesthetic: rough 'n' rowdy speed metal of a most classic '80s aspect. The power-trio built their name in the underground on the back of three cult demos and especially their self-titled debut album in 2016. Now, with Too Fast for the Flames, hear how mighty BEWITCHER have become, even including a killer of W.A.S.P.'s "Show No Mercy" - back when that band was untouchable!

EMERALD - Voice for the Silent (NEW*LIM.250 BLACK V.*DUTCH METAL*A.WITCH*SATAN*C.GLORY) - 20 €

The Dutch heavy metal scene of the '80s has given birth to many jewels, and one of them was "Down Town", a debut LP of EMERALD.

It was the only album of the band until now, when their long awaited comeback finally sees the light of day. A 32-year gap between the albums is huge... Many bands fail to revive their spirit, but EMERALD fans have nothing to fear: the record sounds as if it was a "lost" gem from the '80s! The songwriting hasn't changed (actually many of these songs were written soon after the debut was out), and Bert Kivits' vocals still have this incredible youthful energy and feel, though now they're smoother, not as extremely high-pitched and shrill as back in the day.

The production is also totally old school - the fully analogue recording, engineering and mastering resulted in great warm sound, which will be for sure appreciated by the fans. And if you're not one of them yet, but love old heavy metal with a great dose of melody and clear NWOBHM influences, you will likely become one and put their new album next to classic records

For Fans of ANGEL WITCH, SATAN, BLITZKRIEG, RIOT, JUDAS PRIEST, CLOVEN HOOF, DIAMOND HEAD, PICTURE, UFO, THIN LIZZY, and CRIMSON GLORY.

Cruz Del Sur Records 2019 - Brandnew Limited Edition of 350 copies in black vinyl, poster !

CAN Epic Metal at its best - for Fans of Visigoth, Eternal Champion, Iron Maiden, Brocas Helm, Slough Feg

One of 2018's true melodic metal breakout acts returns with sterling four-song EP. Hot off the heels of their acclaimed East of Sun debut, Canada's Gatekeeper strike while the iron is hot with the Grey Maiden EP, featuring a scorching new cut, re-recording of an old favorite, acoustic song and cover of an obscure NWOBHM track. The metal scene moves fast. Hundreds of releases are made available every month from new bands jockeying for position or veteran outfits doing their best to keep up with the times. It simply may no longer be feasible to release an album, support it with some shows, then disappear for two years only to do it all over again. Such is the line of thinking for Canada's Gatekeeper, who return in 2019 with the four-song Grey Maiden EP.

The follow-up to their successful East of Sun full-length debut, Grey Maiden includes the brand-new title track and acoustic Moss, a re-recording of Tale of Twins from their first demo and a cover of Richard III by obscure NWOBHM outfit Tredegar. Gatekeeper - who consist of vocalist Jean-Pierre, guitarist/founding member Geoff Blackwell, lead guitarist Kenny Kroecheer, bassist David Messier and drummer Tommy Tro - originally had the idea to record an EP after being asked by Skol Records to contribute to their NOWBHM compilation, Grandbreton Invasion. Figuring they were already going to be ensconced in the studio recording Richard III, Gatekeeper decided to waste no time in pulling the Grey Maiden EP together, providing their fans with an early 2019 treat.

The title track finds Gatekeeper at their melodic best, showcasing the bands penchant for twin guitar harmonies as well as the impressive range of Jean-Pierre, who ably weaves between heavy, complex riffing. In fact, Jean-Pierres work on Grey Maiden, Tale of Twins and Richard III, showcase a vocalist now coming into his own, something that Blackwell attests to the pairs deep well of ideas and constant flow of communication between the bands home base of Vancouver and Jean-Pierres current locale of Portland, Oregon. Blackwell, the consummate riff and melody writer, JP, a vocalist who likes to think outside of the box, are often looking for unique rhythmic patterns to suit his versatile vocals.

The songwriting serve-and-volley between the two paid quick dividends on East of Sun and only gets better here, especially when Gatekeeper explores the challenging terrain of Richard III. In fact, the members of Gatekeeper are more apt to drop obscure metal references than they are to vouch for the scenes more prominent bands. Blackwell considers it to be their bread and butter, born from the never-ending desire to find bands off the beaten path who could offer something new and vibrant to influence Gatekeepers sound. This pursuit of individualism is one of Gatekeepers defining traits they easily elude many of melodic and power metals stylistic trappings on both East of Sun and Grey Maiden. The new year will find Gatekeeper hitting Europe with labelmates Sanhedrin in addition to hunkering down with a brand-new batch of songs for an eventual sophomore full-length release. Grey Maiden is hardly a stopgap release, but another bold proclamation from a band who appears to be just getting started. European tour with label-mates SANHEDRIN in February / March 2019.

HAUNT - If Icarus Could Fly (PRE-ORDER*LIM.SPLATTER V.*US METAL KILLER*IRONFLAME*NIGHT DEMON) - 19 €

Shadow Kingdom Records 2019 - Brandnew massively anticipated second album of America's HAUNT, If Icarus Could Fly !

Limited Edition half mustard/ half red w/ black splatter vinyl, insert, 1500 copies !

A lot of great Guitar Harmonies over an classic 80's oldschool feeling and production !

For Fans of Angel Witch, DiAnno's Iron Maiden, Ironflame, Cauldron, Night Demon

Simply put, HAUNT is the new face of traditional heavy metal & hard rock. Masterful despite their young years as a band, HAUNT began as a solo project of Beastmaker frontman Trevor William Church and promptly self-released its debut EP, Luminous Eyes, during the summer of 2017. Not long after, the EP was picked up for physical release by SHADOW KINGDOM, and henceforth did HAUNT begin its ascent...

With Luminous Eyes reaping widespread acclaim from both fans and critics alike, the stage was set for HAUNT's inevitable debut album. Aptly titled Burst Into Flame, the band's full-length debut was released during the summer of 2018 and promptly burned a whole new path for HAUNT. Now expanded into a full working lineup, Church's vision proved infinitely powerful and poignant: here, HAUNT's blend of turn-of-the-'80s heavy metal with touches of '70s hard rock positively exploded with electricity and excitement at every turn. And that electricity reached a fever pitch as the band hit the touring circuit thereafter, culminating with a rapturously received run on the Speed of the Wizard tour supporting High on Fire, Municipal Waste, and Toxic Holocaust.

Not ones to rest on their considerable laurels, HAUNT are back less than a year after their debut album with the even stronger If Icarus Could Fly. Taking everything that was so magical about Burst Into Flame - compact songcraft, immediately memorable hooks, impassioned playing, an understated emotional element that elevates everything above mere party fodder - and fine-tuning it to near-perfection, If Icarus Could Fly is a step-up on every level.

And once again, at every turn there's an absolute ANTHEM, perhaps best exemplified by the unforgettable "It's In My Hands," a masterpiece of a song that will likely be the "hit" of the album. Elsewhere, HAUNT have simply sharpened their attack with seemingly effortless ease: heavy and heartfelt, with an expressiveness that encapsulates everything that's so engaging and enduring about traditional metal. Simply put, If Icarus Could Fly is a natural progression from HAUNT's debut album and the next chapter in their saga as new kings.

After the great Serpent Album and the Debut "Snakes and Liars" this is the 2nd release under their Monicker "NEKROMANT" ! Killer Album - one of TOP 3 in 2018 for me !

Hailing from the Swedish city of Vänersborg, the band – formerly known as Serpent – are renowned for delivering a raw, gritty and direct assault, cast in the fires and a dedicated melting pot of metallic inspirations which include Black Sabbath, Pentagram and Texan rockers, The Sword. Following the release of their self-titled album in late 2015 on Transubstans Records, the band played extensively both home and abroad at large shows such as Sweden Rock Festival and toured with fellow Swedes, Cities of Mars. Their album Nekromant (released under the band's original name) received unanimous praise by critics and fans alike and led to a very successful start in 2016 for the trio. Having caught the attention of Ripple Music, and we immediately fell in love with the way the band wore their influences proudly on their sleeves, with the dark and heavy majesty of Snakes & Liars (2017) Nekromant undoubtedly carried a torch for old-school metal.

Shadow Kingdom Records 2018 - Brandnew limited Edition in black/blue/clear colored vinyl, ltd 200, insert

For Fans of Corrosion of Conformity, Black Sabbath, Place of Skulls, The Obsessed, early Judas Priest, Thin Lizzy, BEELZEFUZZ and Wino-era Saint Vitus

For nearly 25 years now, PALE DIVINE have been perfecting the proto-doom sound - rooted in the '70s, particularly Pentagram and Ozzy-era Black Sabbath but also Sir Lord Baltimore, Leafhound, and even very early Judas Priest - but predating so many cloying pretenders ever since. Not for them is this just another trendy bandwagon to jump on; PALE DIVINE truly LIVE this music. The public's tastes may be fickle, but diehards know and love the name PALE DIVINE. And for very good reason: albums like 2001's Thunder Perfect Mind and 2004's Eternity Revealed are considered classics of the genre, carrying the torch of '80s forebears like Saint Vitus and Trouble, and keeping that flame burning whatever the cost.

And though it's been six long years since PALE DIVINE's last album, 2012's SHADOW KINGDOM-released Painted Windows Black, the power-trio sound more energized than ever on Pale Divine. A veritable tour de force of everything that's been brewing in the band's cauldron lo these many years, Pale Divine explodes with thunder and swagger at every turn: from epic metal excursions to bluesy rockers, groove behemoths to graveyard laments, psychedelic swirl to straight-up crush, this album literally has it ALL! Naturally, actual honest-to-goodness songwriting takes center stage here, and PALE DIVINE possess the panache to pull it all off with style and grace, effortlessly and unselfconsciously so. At the forefront, as ever, are the always soulful vocals of guitarist Greg Diener, who brings pathos and poignancy to such heartrending topics as "Chemical Decline," "Bleeding Soul," "So Low," and "Curse the Shadows." Which is to say nothing of the production on Pale Divine, which has that rich warmth and as-true-as-it-gets analog sound that further underline the timelessness PALE DIVINE have made their stock-in-trade since the beginning.

The more things change, the more they stay the same sometimes, and there stands PALE DIVINE, tall and proud. In 2018, you're not gonna find a better, more rockin' and more pure DOOM album than Pale Divine!

Now they're being presented for their first time ever in one place, remastered from the original source audio, on Sing, Guslar!

Cruz Del Sur Records 2019 - Brandnew limited Edition in black vinyl, insert, Fantastic Newcomer from USA with a killer Mix of classic US Metal / Speed Metal and some Doom Elements !

For Fans of Lizzy Borden / Def Leppard / Accept / Thin Lizzy / Queensryche / Iron Maiden / Axe Witch / Tokyo Blade meets Magic Circle / Trouble / The Obsessed / Black Sabbath w. Ozzy

Brooklyn's Sanhedrin scale boundaries and elude genre norms on their second studio album, The Poisoner. The band's intoxicating blend of doom and classic metal is complemented by lyrics that delve into the darker elements of humanity and the cyclical nature of destructive ideas. Thought-provoking and inherently catchy at the same time, The Poisoner is indicative of a band unafraid to venture into uncharted territory. Sanhedrin's 2017 A Funeral for the World debut full-length was originally released independently, but reissued for broader release by Cruz Del Sur Music in 2018.

The Poisoner picks up where its predecessor left off, with the Brooklyn trio (who consist of former Amber Asylum/Lost Goat bassist/vocalist Erica Stoltz, Black Anvil guitarist Jeremy Sosville and drummer Nathan Honor) parlaying their vast array of influences into eight gripping, instantaneously memorable numbers that rely on melodic riff choices, the affecting vocals of Stoltz and touches of dark atmosphere. Recorded with producer Colin Marston at Menegroth, The Thousand Caves, the members of Sanhedrin cite Marston's ability to pick up on the minute details of their sound as one of the reasons for their collaboration, which began on A Funeral for the World. According to Sanhedrin, Marston, who usually tackles some of extreme metal's most unique and unrelenting acts, is on the same sonic wavelength as the band, capable of translating their musical vision without sacrificing the raw and natural elements of their sound. The Poisoner reflects the various sides of Sanhedrin, from classic, if not soaring jaunts, to tight, direct melds of gallop-oriented metal to doom-channeled motifs, most notably, the album's title track, which features a guest appearance by Stoltz's former Amber Asylum bandmate Kris Force on violin.

This diversity is less of a jigsaw than it is the natural melding of various ideas and styles, taking Sanhedrin to new places on each song. On The Poisoner, Sanhedrin defies categorization, hereby entering into their own carved-out space where exploration and timeless songwriting are paramount. European tour with label mates GATEKEPEER in February / March 2019.

SEAX - Fallout Rituals (NEW*LIM.800 BLUE/WHITE V.*US SPEED METAL*RAZOR*A.STEEL) - 19 €

Shadow Kingdom Records 2019 – Brandnew US Speed Metal Killer – a must have for every Metal Maniac ! Limited Edition of 800 copies in electric blue with white smoke vinyl, insert, poster

For Fans of Agent Steel, Hallows Eve, Living Death, Nasty Savage, Razor, Evil Invaders

A fixture on the true metal scene, Massachusetts' SEAX are a staunchly DIY and hard-touring group. Founded in 2009 with the intent of playing classic heavy metal, it was 2012 when SEAX's first album arrived with the aptly titled High on Metal. Completely DIY, it set the standard for which the band would follow. Two years later came To the Grave, further intensifying SEAX's by-now-speeding sound and underlining their independent spirit. But it was 2016's lay-it-all-on-the-line Speed Metal Mania where the band really came into their own, seemingly perfecting their infectiously classic speed metal sound.

That is, until Fallout Rituals, where SEAX have truly come into their own. Like some long-lost Cobra Records or Mausoleum release from '84, SEAX come roaring outta the gates with gleaming chrome and billowing exhaust, heading down the highway literally high on heavy metal. Old Canadian and German gods are hailed, and they see that all is right and righteous with SEAX; there's no faking this kind of authenticity, this timeless and unbending pursuit of total speed metal. Soaring vocals, exploding solos, locomotive drive, clear-yet-cutting production, absolute desire and desperation at every turn: Fallout Rituals is once again aptly titled, so focused is their pistons-pumping push. Naturally, elder British spirits likewise linger across this landscape, and they are suitably pleased with SEAX's speed metal mania.

SINS OF THE DAMNED - Striking the Bell of Death (NEW*SPEED METAL*LIM.100 BLACK V.) - 18 €

Shadow Kingdom Records 2019 - Brandnew Speed Metal from Chile ! Limited Edition of 100 copies in Black Vinyl + Insert !

For Fans of Razor, Whiplash, Exciter, and Deathrow (Germany), Desaster, Gospel of the Horns, DEATHHAMMER, and BARBARIAN.

Formed in 2013 in the city of Santiago, SINS OF THE DAMNED have become a cult institution in their homeland of Chile, itself a hotbed of heavy metal mania. The band self-released their first couple of demos, totally DIY but 100% professional, and prodigiously perfected their craft with subsequent short-length releases every year since. And now, at last arrives the full distillation of SINS OF THE DAMNED's eternal, unyielding aesthetic: the full-length Striking the Bell of Death!

For a debut album, Striking the Bell of Death does everything it should: consolidate all of SINS OF THE DAMNED's strengths, unveil previously hinted-at elements, and deliver them in a powerful production. The beauty (or is that ugliness?) of SINS OF THE DAMNED is that the quartet maintain such a classic sound, drinking deeply of metal's rich history, and yet exude a freshness of approach that results in something legitimately, respectably modern. Striking the Bell of Death is full, furious proof of that, exhibiting absolutely masterful songwriting - hooks, energy, passion, EVERYTHING - while roughening it up in a manner almost blackened (but not too much!).

Insane high Speed Riff Massacre with powerful Vocals and high screams ! This is classic 80's Speed Metal !
Speed metal demons Stalker staked their infernal claim with their 2017 Shadow of the Sword debut, which included pedal-to-the-metal mayhem and maximum intensity throughout. In preparation for their next full-length attack, expected later this year, the New Zealand power-trio are unleashing a limited-edition 7" featuring two new iron-clad anthems, "Powermad" and "Behold the Beast". Bristling with primaevael thrash and stampeding bass, Stalker's latest tracks exhibit all the charisma, abandon and shred-head pyrotechnics that secured the band's scorching live reputation.
Stalker pay due respect to their '80s forebears, but the trio aren't living in the past. Pushing themselves ever harder, Stalker's latest spandex-and-leather-clad songs are as raw and bloody as a fresh kill. "Like the blinding flash before the shockwave hits, we've unleashed this 7" killing machine to foreshadow our new full-length," notes Daif King, the band's vocalist and bassist. "Prepare yourself and get up to ramming speed or risk it all when the blast wave hits. Forwarned is forearmed, you surface dwellers!" Stalker hit red-lining speeds on the scorched-earth battlezone "Powermad", while black magic boils over on the similarly possessed "Behold the Beast". Raw-yet-honed production ensures all the sonic filth stains your soul, while Stalker's razor-sharp riffs cut deeper than ever.

Ripple Music 2018 - US Direct Import ! Limited Edition of 200 copies in Black Vinyl,
For Fans of Black Sabbath, Ghost, Kadavar, Vintage Caravan or Year of the Goat mixed with a lot of NWOBHM and some Grand Magus / Manowar Epic !
Their debut album was the surprise occult doom release of the year last year, now The Necromancers come roaring back with their follow up release Of Blood and Wine. Present are all the same intense moods and themes, with even better songwriting and heavier riffs!
Drawing on antiquated inspirations in mythology, religion, fantastical tales from European literature and an obsession for classic horror cinema, The Necromancers are a curious alliance of musicians, and together are a strange beast to behold.
Following on from the release of their debut album last year on Ripple Music, the French quartet return with the first taste of their eagerly awaited follow up, Of Blood and Wine, with 'Secular Lord'; a song about which explores the legend of Vlad 'The Empalor' Tepes. Experimenting with progressive rock, heavy psych and the 70s pagan/proto-metal of bands like Black Sabbath and Coven, they take these influences, throw in the urgency of NWOBHM and douse the entire lot in lysergic illusions. All with a mind to create an album a sound for ages.
After a very successful tour last winter with Swiss psych rock legends Monkey 3, The Necromancers take to the road for a European tour with Belzebong, kicking off with an album release show at Le Cluricaume in their hometown of Poitiers.

'Get Judged' kicks things off with a high energy kick to the nether regions, a speedball metallor with a "show no mercy or fear!" refrain. While Sean Orlicky's old school style of warble vocals are usually teamed with doom metal, they work mighty fine within the more traditional metal style found herein.

TROLL - Legend Master DLP (NEW*US EPIC DOOM METAL*LIM.400 GOLD*PALLBEARER) - 22 €

Shadow Kingdom Records 2019 – Brandnew US Epic Doom Metal ! Limited Edition in double GOLD vinyl, gatefold, insert – 400 copies only !

For Fans of Khemmis, Pallbearer, Warning (UK), Solstice (UK), Hour Of 13 and the Lord Weird Slough Feg

Hailing from Portland, Oregon, TROLL released their first demo in 2015. Not long after came Troll, their debut album, which was originally self-released on cassette tape. Its original edition sold out quickly, and soon came to the attention of SHADOW KINGDOM. Duly impressed, the label simply had to release TROLL's album on wider-available physical formats and get the band the attention they so truly deserve.

early 2018: TROLL's swampy, primordial doom ooze was critically acclaimed far and wide, with many salaciously awaiting the band's next move. And now, that next move has arrived, and it's more molten and momentous: the ominously titled Legend Master, TROLL's first brand-new material since 2016.

The title Legend Master is a telling one: here, TROLL dial back the swamplier excesses of their more stoner-indebted work and aim for a more regal, prog-inclined style of doom. And yet, even with such a significant shift, the band's powers are truly hitting a fever pitch here, seemingly able to weave a majestic-yet-mournful tale at every turn. And there are five "turns" here, each of Legend Master's five tracks an expansive epic in their own right. With two songs clocking in at eight minutes and the other three topping 10 minutes, TROLL render the album a world unto itself; riffs lumber and crunch and then fold and wander, creating atmosphere and tension alike, as enigmatic vocalist Rainbo really reaches into his soul to deliver a goosebump-inducing performance like no other. After 52 minutes, you'll feel like you've gone on a journey of a lifetime, yet will be pressing "play" again immediately after: TROLL have truly become that engaging.

„By steel, by silver

I slay like a wolf in the night

By steel, by silver

I slay, runes of power be my light!“

Es gibt nur ganz, ganz wenige Heavy-Metal-Bands der jungen Generation, deren Texte den Fans in Fleisch und Blut übergegangen sind und die bei Konzerten lautstark mitgesungen werden. Visigoth sind die momentan populärste und beste neue Heavy-Metal-Band - zumindest abseits der Mainstream-Metal-Szene. Zwei Longplayer und eine Demo-EP reichten aus, um die sympathischen Jungs aus Salt Lake City an die Spitze der aktuellen US-Metal-Szene zu katapultieren - und bei uns bekommen sie die erste Titelstory ihrer Karriere.

Ebenfalls zu den Bands, bei denen die Metalfans außer Rand und Band geraten, zählen Metal Inquisitor. Faule Kompromisse, wie sie Legionen anderer Combos eingehen - sei es im Studio oder live auf der Bühne - gibt es bei den Koblenzern, die eigentlich aus Newcastle, London oder Birmingham kommen müssten, nicht. Und unterhaltsam sind sie zudem auch noch.

Schon traditionell für den Monat Februar liefern wir euch die Auswertung des großen Leser-Jahrespolls. Verraten wollen wir an dieser Stelle noch nichts – nur so viel: Ihr seid die Besten und die Geschmackssichersten! Diesmal habt ihr den Rekord, was die Zuschriften und E-Mails angeht, aufgestellt. Umso repräsentativer ist das bunte Ergebnis für den Metal-Underground im deutschsprachigen Raum im Jahre 2018. Und das erfüllt uns schon ein bisschen mit Stolz.

Einer unserer gefährlichsten Mitarbeiter, Michael “Hefte raus, Klassenarbeit!“ Kohsiek, hat seit seiner Schulzeit zwei Träume: Einmal zusammen mit Martin Brandt und Oli Weinsheimer alle 26 Jag-Panzer-Groupies dieser Erde vögeln - und einmal mit King Diamond plaudern. Traum eins soll spätestens im Jahre 2023 in den großen Sommerferien in Angriff genommen werden, und Traum zwei ist bereits Realität. Wir gratulieren!

Seine Geschichte über die early days der Aachener Thrasher Holy Moses hatte Wolf-Rüdiger Mühlmann schon im Jahre 1991 fertig, legte sie aber zum Reifen neben seinen guten alten Wein (drei Flaschen, abgezapft und originalverkorkt von Pahlgruber & Söhne) in den Keller. Jetzt endlich hat das Werk die nötige Würze, wurde von Sabina Classen noch ein bisschen verfeinert - und liegt euch in mundgerechter Form vor. Worauf die Welt nicht weniger sehnsüchtig gewartet hat, ist endlich mal eine richtig große Story über Absu, die Miterfinder des Black Thrash, auch wenn sich die Texaner selbst lieber als Mythological Occult Metal bezeichnen. Stefan Franke unterhielt sich mit dem total durchgeknallten Bandkopf Proscriptor McGovern tagelang und ließ sich durch die lange Geschichte dieser völlig unterbewerteten, total einzigartigen Band führen.

Weitere Interviews haben wir geführt mit: Overkill, Traveler, Our Survival Depends On Us, Flotsam And Jetsam, Candlemass, Herman Frank, Queensryche, Deserted Fear, Sanhedrin, Mirror Of Deception, Magic Circle, Undead Prophecies, Hexvessel, Exumer, Backyard Babies, While Heaven Wept, Black Viper, Powergame, Demon Head, Dew-Scented, Wheel, Wizard, Rosy Vista, The Three Tremors sowie Antropomorphia. In unserer Earmageddon-Rubrik befassen wir uns diesmal mit dem Werk von Pearl Jam, und unser Magazin-Sarkophag namens Under A Funeral Moon liefert euch diesmal u.a. Interviews mit Whoredom Rife, Funereal Presence, Cantique Lépreux, Obliteration und Hadopelagyal. Unsere beliebten Rubriken The Dungeons Are Calling, Heavy Metal Hunter und Forgotten Jewels fördern wieder massig Wahnsinnige, Tipps und Talente zutage.

Selbstredend gibt's ein komplettes Paralleluniversum voller Tonträger-Reviews, und zwei geschmackssichere Poster spendieren wir euch ebenfalls: Pete Steele/Type O Negative (live) sowie auf vielfachen Leserwunsch "Walls Of Jericho" von Helloween.
