Saying that Sweden has a great tradition when it comes to heavy metal, is as obvious as saying that the sky is blue.
AXE WITCH maybe weren't as known as let's say CANDLEMASS, HEAVY LOAD or EUROPE, but managed to leave great legacy, and all 4 albums they released back in the day, now have legendary status.
In 1982, shortly after doing first demo tape, the band debuted with a 4-track EP entitled "Pray For Metal". While they were not hiding the fact, that they were inspired by British acts such as JUDAS PRIEST, their very first recordings already presented their very own and unique sound.
Skol Records is proud to present CD reissues of the entire back catalogue of this premier Swedish act. The first one in the series, "Pray For Metal", will hit the streets in 2019, and will include 12 bonus tracks.

ACRIDITY got its start in Victoria, TX in 1986, and by the end of the year had solidified a still-teenaged lineup consisting of guitarists Anthony Pedone and Mel Langenberg, Mark Cox (bass), Mark Soto (drums), and frontman Darin Carroll. Combining passions for no-frills, heavy-or-die thrash as well as the sounds of the NWOBHM, the group set out to manifest its own brand of complicated thrash riffs, melodic overtones, and extended song structures—developed in parallel with their influences such as Metallica, Testament, Kreator, and Destruction.

BEWITCHER - Under the Witching Cross (NEW*US THRASH METAL*MIDNIGHT*POUNDER*EXCITER) - 14 €

Shadow Kingdom Records 2019 – Brandnew CD Edition !
US blackened Speed Metal- for Fans of MIDNIGHT, VENOM, CELTIC FROST, BATHORY, TOXIC HOLOCAUST, BAT, POUNDER, EXCITER
As presaged by their Too Fast for the Flames 7" on SHADOW KINGDOM in early 2019, BEWITCHER are leaner and especially meaner than ever!
The power-trio built their name in the underground on the back of three cult demos and especially their self-titled debut album in 2016, and now arrives Under the Witching Cross to present the band in their crudest 'n' rudest form: Rough 'n' rowdy speed metal of a most classic '80s aspect, with a touch of good, old-fashioned EVIL the way Venom and early Razor did it way back in the day.
In fact, one could say BEWITCHER are a veritable time-machine of enviable, unbelievable proportions - except you look at the calendar and realize you're living in the present! But BEWITCHER don't give a fuck, and proceed to pulverize you with POUNDING METAL, one anthem after another, on the eight-anthem/33-minute Under the Witching Cross. We can also mention Celtic Frost, early Sodom, Exciter, and even a touch of Dissection as ever-honorable influences here, so you know BEWITCHER are the absolute Real Deal! But the band's also highly recommended for maniacs of MIDNIGHT, BAT, POUNDER, CHAINBREAKER, and Italy's BARBARIAN. Watch out, because the night's about to get HOT when BEWITCHER takes you Under the Witching Cross!

BLACK SITES - Exile (NEW*LIM.500*US METAL*I.MAIDEN*B.SABBATH*J.PRIEST*RAINBOW)

Hoove Child Records 2019 - US Import ! Brandnew US Metal from Chicago - limited 500 copies

"Exile" contains 8 tracks of dark traditional metal/rock. It is an ambitious and cerebral offering that encompasses several genres and time periods of heavy metal and hard rock.

For fans of: Idle Hands, Dawnbringer, Demon Bitch, Iron Maiden, Black Sabbath, Judas Priest, UFO, Thin Lizzy, Rainbow, Amorphis, Voivod, and King's X.

Exile is a triumphantly classic heavy metal album that does not feel nostalgic. Mark Sugar's super power is writing excellent, addictive thrash-laced heavy metal in his own particular idiom. As with his last two albums, Exile blends influences perfectly. Every tight riff, every dual guitar lead, every dramatic bridge with Planet Caravan" vocal effects builds into a unit that makes Black Sites refreshing and idiosyncratic.

A classic four-piece, the band has two guitarists (Sugar and Ryan Bruchert [ex-Trials]) slinging riffs, a bassist (José Salazar) holding down the low end with a Steve Harris-esque presence. And supporting it all on drums is Garry Naples (Novembers Doom and Wolvhammer) who does a great job of moving between more tom-heavy '90s vibes and straight up classic metal swing ("Feral Child"). Mark's vocals—maybe best compared to John Bush's stint in Anthrax

Includes members of Bear Mace, Professor Black (live), and Midnight Dice/Satan's Hallow. Cover painting by Adam Burke (Eternal Champion, Moros Nyx, Pagan Altar, Spell, etc).

The metal scene was detonating all over the world in the early and mid 80's, but aside from Stryper, Christian metal was in the infant stages....and then came along 1986. 1986 was an iconic year for Christian metal. We saw future Hall-of-Fame releases by some bands we already knew - Leviticus (Strongest Power), Saint (Times End), and Messiah Prophet (Master of the Metal). But 1986 also offered several critically acclaimed debut releases from bands that would go on to define the epitome of Christian metal in the decades to follow - Bride (Show No Mercy), Barren Cross (Rock For the King), and last but not least, the debut self-titled album from the theatrical U.S. band out of the state of Washington with a peculiar name, and a sound that hit all the right notes for metalheads desperate for MORE white metal - BLOODGOOD!

2019 Retroactive Records Legends Remastered edition is THE definitive reissue of this classic album - finally getting it right with a 12 page booklet (jewel case) featuring lyrics and rare band photos, digitally remastered by Rob Colwell of Bombworks Sound! This reissue enhances the pure magic of the original and makes it shine even brighter, making it a necessary re-purchase even if you already own it.

If you are a fan of Christian Metal this album needs no special new bio, it needs no fancy sales points, and it definitely needs no introduction! We are talking about the classic album 'Detonation' from those pioneers of Christian rock BLOODGOOD! That's right this limited edition CD has been remixed and remastered by the one and only David Zaffiro.

For all you audiophiles out there you'll be happy to know that this isn't just a refresh of the original. The only other reissue of this masterpiece was done by the now defunct Intense Millennium Records in 2010, which is also difficult to find as it has even been out of print for years. It's a brand new remastered version with much deeper punch (i.e. low end EQ that wasn't possible back in 1986.)

Bloodgood's David Zaffiro took exceptional care to rebuild Detonation from the ground up. As well as being expanded to include three previously unreleased bonus tracks recorded live in Sacramento from their 1987 tour.

A true classic and now available to you once again in this special Limited Edition package.

1989 saw the band relocate to Baltimore, MD where Jerry Koulastis joined as drummer and Nick Neghandi on bass. Robby Anderson became the vocalist with fellow guitarist John Golzari sharing duties. They entered the studio in the fall of 1989 and recorded the demo "Tales of Dark Deception".

20th Century Music 2019 – Brandnew Lim. 500 CD Edition – fantastic AUS Melodic Metal !

For Fans of Roxus, Def Leppard, Asia, Firehouse, Danger Danger, Gowan

De-Arrow was an Australian 5-piece melodic rock band that existed from 1983 to 1989.

The original line-up consisted of Lou Yarevski (vocals), Dragan Stanic (guitars), Noel Hart (keyboards), Paul (Jackie) Gleeson (bass), and Mick Djokic (drums).

Later incarnations included Mick Kat (bass), Steve Kara (drums), with session vocals expertly handled by well-known Australian singers Adrian Campbell and Juno Roxas.

Though it was the 1980s and big hair was de rigueur for hard rock bands, including De-Arrow, for these guys it was always more about the music rather than the image.

Catchy hooks, chunky guitars with awesome solos, layered contemporary keyboards, huge drums, with a rock-God vocal line over the top. Along with radio-ready anthems, De-Arrow also presented longer epics with more complex arrangements. Some musical depth for those delving deeper.

Ensnared in the underground cassette tape-trading circuit that was so prevalent during the 1980s, De-Arrow caught the attention of press and radio across the planet.

Highlights of the Melbourne-based band's career included international management and publishing deals with Kim Fowley and Peer Southern Music, being named in the top 10 unsigned bands in Australia, two tracks later placed on the gold-selling Roxus album Nightstreet, and a series of highly-acclaimed De-Arrow gigs throughout the 1980s

In that twilight period between the setting of the 1970s and the dawning of the 1980s, there was a brief time when hard rock and heavy metal world come together as one. And from this union came forth the likes of bands such as Yesterday & Today, Riot, TKO and The Rods to name but a few. This groups would be some of the first of what would become known a U.S. Heavy Metal and rival that happening overseas with the NWOBHM. And similar to the movement in Europe, many of these new hard rock/heavy metal bands would pop up across America, most of which like their European peers would fade out quickly and be lost to time only to be discovered years later....Such is the case with DESIRE. DESIRE was formed in late 1980-1981 by guitarist Burk Skyhorse Price, drummer Larry Sexton, & manager Bob Theissen. The band operated out of Northern Kentucky and Cincinnati, Ohio, and was one of the first local acts to establish a following playing primarily original material. The band was known for its over-the-top live performances that featured full arena-style lights and sound, even in smaller venues. DESIRE released one album, 'Cry At The Sky', which was recorded at Counterpart Creative Studios in the spring and summer of 1983. There were two versions of this album. The first, called 'Screamer On The Rocks', only made it to test pressing because of a last-minute personnel change. 'Cry At The Sky', featuring a different vocalist, made it to the pressing plant, and was released in the fall of 1983. It received airplay on the major FM rock station in Cincinnati and the band received high praise in the press for both their music and live shows.

Formed in Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada during the mid-'80s, DISCIPLES OF POWER is the brainchild of guitarist/vocalist Hart Bachmier, who steered the group through more than a decade of demo recordings, record label woes, lineup changes, and four full-length albums—Power Trap, Ominous Prophecy, Invincible Enemy, and Mechanikill—before the band dissipated during the late-'90s. Throughout that time, Bachmier developed his high-speed tech-thrash attack toward an increasingly diverse and death metal-leaning approach; relentlessly promoting DISCIPLES OF POWER to the point of literally taking a Greyhound bus across Canada selling merchandise out of suitcases for a spell in the early-'90s. DISCIPLES OF POWER's live résumé was boosted through opening slots for such legends as Annihilator, Anvil, Exciter, Forbidden, Razor, Sacred Reich, and many more.

HERITAGE - Remorse Code (NEW*LIM.500 SLIPCASE ED.*NWOBHM) - 14 €

High Roller Records 2019 – Brandnew Limited 500 slipcase Edition - NWOBHM

Another band from the Rondelet stable, Heritage opened their account with a highly collectable 7" 'Strange Place To Be' b/w 'Misunderstood' in 1981. Recorded in the March of that year at Fairview in Hull – one of the principal studios in the history of the NWOBHM – the catchy A-side and its more frenetic flip demonstrated that the band were both talented songwriters and proficient players; an album was given the green light, but then line-up changes threw a spanner in the works.

The band that re-appeared at Fairview the following year was remarkably different to the one that had put the single to tape. Gone were vocalist Darryl Cheswick, guitarist Jeff Birkby, bassist Tony Hynd and drummer Paul Gilbert, and with just guitarist and songwriter Steve Johnson remaining from the original line-up the band was completed by Steve Barratt (guitar), Paul 'Frasker' Johnson (bass) and Peter Halliday on drums, with vocals shared between the Johnson brothers and Barratt. The result was an album that was as diverse and deep as the NWOBHM itself, with melodic material like the Thin Lizzy-esque 'Endless Flight' rubbing shoulders with the rampaging 'Attack Attack'. The oddly-named instrumental 'Rudy And The Zips' gave the band the opportunity to let loose, and a re-recording of 'Strange Place To Be' brought the album's running order up to ten. Unfortunately, before long their record label was in financial difficulty, and by the end of 1983 both Rondelet and Heritage had been consigned to the history books.

This release features the band's entire vinyl catalogue, combining the album with their sole single, and is a true celebration of a band at the height of their form.

Right now HOLLOW is a solo project by Andreas Stoltz, singer, composer and guitarist from Sweden. The album "Between Eternities of Darkness" consists of 10 songs and plays for about 45 minutes. It's a dark, cathartic tale about running from problems, facing adversities and searching for a place to fit in. "Between Eternities of Darkness" is an album you should listen to from start to end. "It's a journey through a short period in a small family's life. This particular period is dark and tragic, but they've seen better days. Light and beauty remain in memory", says Andreas Stoltz.

I.N.C. – Terrible Things (NEW*US TRHASH METAL COMEBACK*OVERKILL*TESTAMENT) - 13 €

US Private Press 2019 – Brandnew killer US Thrash Metal Comeback - I.N.C. (aka Indestructible Noise Command
I.N.C. recorded a demo tape back in 1986 and appeared on stage with the likes of Exodus, Megadeth, Pantera, Testament, and King Diamond. They were still in high school at the time. Then, after a pair of pretty enjoyable albums on a big label, they disappeared from the scene before making a return in 2010.
This is I.N.C.'s fifth full-length and its totally back to the roots after 2 weak album before - Killer US Thrash Metal with a technical and melodic edge. Dennis Gergely is finally doing justice to himself and, instead of trying to sound like Phil Anselmo, he demonstrates his range of high-pitched wails and throat-destroying screams, but also finds opportunities for soulful singing. The duo of Erik Barath and Tony Fabrizi pours out one circle pit riff after another, while also injecting a hefty amount of melody in the compositions. The solos would perfectly suit a power metal album. Last but not least, the rhythm section's hammering is relentless, and I love the fact that I can hear Dave Campo's killer basslines.
For Fans of Exodus, Overkill, Sacred Reich, Testament

MESSANO - Messano (NEW*US AOR / HARD ROCK*LIM.500*TYCOON*H.SUITE*JOURNEY) - 15 €

Divebomb Records 2019 - Brandnew US AOR / Hard Rock from 1989 - limited to 500 copies

The decades-long career of respected guitarist Bobby Messano picked up steam in the mid- to late-'70s with acts such as Stanky Brown and Starz. Gravitating toward session work around 1980, MESSANO would contribute to albums from a range of different artists—Peter Criss and Joe Lynn Turner among them—as well as touring alongside heavyweights like Steve Winwood, Lou Gramm, and more. For a portion of that era, Bobby had also joined rockers Franke & The Knockouts, performing (and co-writing two tracks) on their 1984 album, Makin' the Point. Toward the end of the '80s, MESSANO also stepped up to present his debut solo album, having assembled a backing band consisting of Erik Boyd (bass), Joey Zee (keyboards), and Mike Gage (drums). Recorded with Jim Barg at The Barge Sound Studio in Wayne, NJ, Bobby handled lead vocals, guitar, bass, and the bulk of the songwriting. That being said, two cuts nodded to his past: "Hide Our Love Away (Tell Me Why)" was first recorded by Franke & The Knockouts under the title "Carrie Why?," and "Sing It, Shout It" was a Starz cover from 1977.

Released by Strategic—a division of Relativity Records—in 1989, the 11-song album has become a bit of a cult classic over the years for fans of top-shelf, hook-fueled melodic hard rock. MESSANO wouldn't release another solo album until 1998—the blues-based Dominion Roads—but has remained an active and highly regarded force in the blues community since that time.

Underrated AOR treasure. Newly remastered with a whopping five bonus tracks, the disc will be presented with a typically detailed booklet featuring a retrospective interview with Bobby Messano himself.

FOR FANS OF: JOURNEY, FRANKE & THE KNOCKOUTS, JOE LYNN TURNER, SPYS, HONEYMOON SUITE & TYCOON

MYTHRA - Death and Destiny - 40th Anniv. (NEW*LIM.SLIPCASE ED.*NWOBHM CLASSIC) - 14 €

High Roller Records 2019 – Brandnew Limited slipcase Edition + poster – NWOBHM All time classic !

Out of the thirteen songs present on »Death And Destiny – 40th Anniversary LP« (including the four tracks from the popular EP), featuring the entire catalogue of the band's studio recordings between 1979 and 1981, Mythra would have most probably chosen the material for a possible debut album, which unfortunately never saw the light of day during the heydays of the glorious New Wave Of British Heavy Metal in the early 1980s.

The mentioned »Death And Destiny« EP was originally issued in 1979 by Guardian Records (based in Pity-Me near Durham), and re-pressed by Street Beat Records a year later.

Mythra were originally formed in South Shields in county Durham in 1978. In contrast to other groups from the North East active around the same time, for example Axe, who later turned into Fist and whose "Name, Rank & Serial" number was covered by Mythra in the very early days, Vince High and his boys did show precious few similarities with seventies bands like Deep Purple, Led Zeppelin or Black Sabbath. Mythra's sound was geared towards the future of metal, not re-visiting past hard rock glories. Along with other acts such as Raven, Satan, Jaguar and Blitzkrieg, Mythra might as well be seen as indirect forerunners of American speed metal outfits such as Exodus, Metallica and Slayer.

Short lived band featuring Crimson Glory guitarist / co-founder Ben Jackson. CD includes six bonus tracks

For Fans of Crimson Glory, Shadow Keep, Queensryche

However, very few probably remember a short lived solo project by guitarist Ben Jackson known as Parish, who released an album in the very midst of metal's demise that came much closer to the original Crimson Glory sound than either of those two albums did. And while not a perfect homage to the original sound, "Envision" definitely suggests that Jackson was as much a factor in shaping the glory days of the band as Midnight was.

DVD is a live show from the Town Lounge in Bradenton, FL recorded on 15 April 1992

PULVER - Kings Under the Sand (NEW*GER HEAVY/DOOM METAL /NWOBHM*TANK*MAIDEN) - 13 €

Gates of Hell Records 2019 - Brandnew GER Heavy Metal - great Gig at the Hammer of Doom Festival !

The Phantom Hawk arrives to enslave ancient Egypt! Here to tell the tale is Pulver, a German metal five-piece who batters like classic Tank and dazzles like early Iron Maiden, Candlemass or early NWOBHM / Motörhead.

Crushing riffs fitted with some doomish heaviness in a steady pace, while offering plenty of twin guitar solos.

Just over a year after the release of their well-received self-titled debut EP, Pulver emerge with the Kings Under the Sand full-length, an album loaded with eight taut, memorable, but gritty classic metal cuts.

Pulver's career has been a domino effect: They formed in late 2016, recorded an EP barely a year later, then, in early 2018, fell upon the ears of Gates of Hell Records, who were all too eager to snap up the young German quintet. Such a rapid development had little effect on the Aschaffenburg outfit, who, by the time their self-titled EP was released in 2018, was already demonstrating songwriting flair resembling that of Accept and Iron Maiden and even Tank, a reference made by several well-informed journalists. Just over a year after the release of their self-titled EP, Pulver has emerged with their first full-length, Kings Under the Sand.

Cult Metal Classic Records – Brandnew US Metal GEM - Limited to 500 copies

VALHALLA need no special introduction. They were the brainchild of virtuoso guitar player Masami Fujimaki of MALTEZE fame and singer extraordinaire Keith Flax, who had sang for some of the best 80's US metal bands like PANTHER, GLACIER, WILD DOGS, SABOTAGE to name a few. In the late 80's the two of them got together and a few years later recorded 5 classic tunes, that to this day, are considered to be among the most criminally neglected classic metal tunes that never got to be officially released by any label at the time.

We are really pleased to announce that these 5 tunes will be finally available in the debut album of VALHALLA "Unearthed", that will feature remastered sound, lyrics and band story and also great photos of the early days of the band.

Each song featured in the album is a huge classic, with melodies that will instantly stick to your mind and will make fans of Tony Martin / James Dio era of BLACK SABBATH very happy!

Special thanks goes to Christine Tsaprouni of Experience The Power magazine for hooking us up with the band and also our eternal gratitude to these two fine musicians Keith and Masami, for collaborating with us in order to release this gem for the first time. HAIL!

US blackened Speed Metal- for Fans of MIDNIGHT, VENOM, CELTIC FROST, BATHORY, TOXIC HOLOCAUST, BAT, POUNDER, EXCITER

As presaged by their Too Fast for the Flames 7" on SHADOW KINGDOM in early 2019, BEWITCHER are leaner and especially meaner than ever! The power-trio built their name in the underground on the back of three cult demos and especially their self-titled debut album in 2016, and now arrives Under the Witching Cross to present the band in their crudest 'n' rudest form: Rough 'n' rowdy speed metal of a most classic '80s aspect, with a touch of good, old-fashioned EVIL the way Venom and early Razor did it way back in the day.

In fact, one could say BEWITCHER are a veritable time-machine of enviable, unbelievable proportions - except you look at the calendar and realize you're living in the present! But BEWITCHER don't give a fuck, and proceed to pulverize you with POUNDING METAL, one anthem after another, on the eight-anthem/33-minute Under the Witching Cross. We can also mention Celtic Frost, early Sodom, Exciter, and even a touch of Dissection as ever-honorable influences here, so you know BEWITCHER are the absolute Real Deal! But the band's also highly recommended for maniacs of MIDNIGHT, BAT, POUNDER, CHAINBREAKER, and Italy's BARBARIAN. Watch out, because the night's about to get HOT when BEWITCHER takes you Under the Witching Cross!

US Private Press 2019 - US Import ! Brandnew US Metal from Chicago - limited 250 copies in Black Vinyl Includes insert with lyrics.

"Exile" contains 8 tracks of dark traditional metal/rock. It is an ambitious and cerebral offering that encompasses several genres and time periods of heavy metal and hard rock.

For fans of: Idle Hands, Dawnbringer, Demon Bitch, Iron Maiden, Black Sabbath, Judas Priest, UFO, Thin Lizzy, Rainbow, Amorphis, Voivod, and King's X.

Exile is a triumphantly classic heavy metal album that does not feel nostalgic. Mark Sugar's super power is writing excellent, addictive thrash-laced heavy metal in his own particular idiom. As with his last two albums, Exile blends influences perfectly. Every tight riff, every dual guitar lead, every dramatic bridge with "Planet Caravan" vocal effects builds into a unit that makes Black Sites refreshing and idiosyncratic.

A classic four-piece, the band has two guitarists (Sugar and Ryan Bruchert [ex-Trials]) slinging riffs, a bassist (José Salazar) holding down the low end with a Steve Harris-esque presence. And supporting it all on drums is Garry Naples (Novembers Doom and Wolvhammer) who does a great job of moving between more tom-heavy '90s vibes and straight up classic metal swing ("Feral Child"). Mark's vocals—maybe best compared to John Bush's stint in Anthrax

BLITZKRIEG - Ten Years of Blitzkrieg PICTURE MLP (NEW*LIM.500*NWOBHM 1991) - 19 €

High Roller Records 2019 – Brandnew Ltd 500, handnumbered, 425gsm heavy cardboard cover, lyric sheet, poster

New Wave Of British Heavy Metal legends Blitzkrieg were formed in Leicester in late 1980 out of the ashes of a band called Split Image when vocalist Brian Ross replaced former singer Sarah Aldwinckle and joined Jim Sieroto (guitar), Ian Jones (guitar), Steve English (bass) and Steve Abbey (drums). Soon enough the new born Blitzkrieg inked a deal with David Wood's Neat Records label. The band's legendary »Buried Alive« single (with "Blitzkrieg" on the B-Side) was recorded at Impulse Studios (produced by Mick Sweeney) in February 1981 and issued as NEAT 10 on May 19th the same year.

Due to Brian Ross joining Satan, the original incarnation of Blitzkrieg split up in late 1981 without having recorded an album. When »A Time Of Changes« was finally released posthumously in 1985 it was too little too late. Time had moved on, and American acts like Exodus, Megadeth, Metallica and Slayer were dominating the international metal scene.

However, the year 1991 saw Blitzkrieg reforming with a line-up of Brian Ross (vocals), Glenn S. Howes (guitar), Tony J. Liddle (guitar), Glen Carey (bass) and Gary Young (drums). They went into the local Impulse Studios in Newcastle upon Tyne to re-record the two tracks off Blitzkrieg's debut single "Blitzkrieg" and "Buried Alive" (with Keith Nichol producing). In addition to that, three brand new songs were put down on tape, "Night Howl", "The Sentinel" and "Nocturnal Vision". Dutch-based label Roadrunner Records issued those five tracks as a mini-album entitled »Ten Years Of Blitzkrieg« in 1991.

»Ten Years Of Blitzkrieg« has not been available on vinyl or CD for over two decades and will therefore be re-issued by High Roller Records as a strictly limited edition picture disc.

DELIVERANCE – Hear what I Say! (NEW*LIM.300 BLACK VINYL*US WHITE THRASH METAL) - 24 €

Retroactive Records 2019 – US Import – US White Thrash Metal - limited Editin of 300 copies in Black Vinyl + Insert !
Make no mistake, Hear What I Say is 100% METAL!
In fact, the 2013 Deliverance release is a nice hybrid of the styles that have characterized the band's two decades of existence. Jimmy is accompanied by axeman extraordinaire Michael Phillips, his faithful bassist Manny Morales and none other than Jayson Sherlock of Mortification and Horde fame pounding out the drum rhythms. It is a great line-up and the high expectations that come with being an iconic metal band have been met, and then some! "The Annals of Subterfuge" and "Angst" will satisfy the fans of their early thrash era being a full-on heavy metal assault, but other tracks that could have easily been recorded on other "big D" albums.
Leave it to Jimmy Brown to stay fresh and experimental without sacrificing the heaviness and all-out metal foundation of the mighty Deliverance sound. You get a Maiden cover "Where Eagles Dare" (which is very well done by the way) and a German version of "Detox," Deliverance was the first Christian extreme metal band to really enjoy success back in the day and the longevity they've enjoyed is a testament to both the quality and integrity of the music and the musicians who have participated in the band over all these years. Fortunately, we haven't heard the last of Jimmy P. Brown.

The wait is finally over! Forever self titled debut album is finally done! After a couple of years of the first glimpse of the band through Youtube, their first album will finally be unleashed on April 19th on the entire world, made up by ten tracks that no fan of classic rock will be able to disregard. The bands combination of catchy melodies, classic rock, large choruses, and orchestral and electronic arrangements will take you on a trip more than thirty years back in time, to the time when rock was king, yet with its own touch and an incredibly tight and organic production.

Forever was recorded, produced, mixed and mastered entirely by its mastermind Jonas Wikstrand, also known as Enforcers drummer (since their conception more than 10 years ago). Not only this, but he also recorded every single instrument heard on this album with the exception of some noticeable guests on lead guitars: Olof Wikstrand, Eirik Røland and Johan Hjalmar Wikstrand. Not only influenced by AOR, Forever's debut album will grab you and wont let you go with its catchy choruses and hard rocking riffing, on an entire journey throughout the 80s, displaying the enormous and vast influences Jonas captured on it.

For Fans of Pallbearer, Solstice, Orchid, Crypt Sermon, Khemmis, Magic Circle, Ozzy O./B.Sabbath

Flashback to 2017: Spirit Adrift dropped its 2nd LP ‘Curse Of Conception’ via 20 Buck Spin, a huge step forward following the debut, landing at #2 in Decibel Magazine’s best albums of the year and carving out a sound now patently its own. Lazily labelled Doom by some, the band is in fact the true representation of what modern Heavy Metal should be, a direct descendent of the widely-appealing arena-filling superstars of the ‘80s and ‘90s without a whiff of anachronistic cosplay fantasies.

Spirit Adrift’s third album ‘Divided By Darkness’ delivers on the promise first revealed on ‘Curse Of Conception’ and then advances far beyond it in every way achieving a timeless album for the ages. First single ‘Hear Her’ pummels with the concise urgency and unforgettable chorus of a vital radio hit while ‘Angel & Abyss’ has the classic progression that leads from reflective ballad to rapturous anthemic triumph. The continued evolution of Nathan Garrett as a top vocal talent in modern Heavy Metal shines through amidst the masterful musicianship and huge production value engineered by Sanford Parker.

Among the many stylistic divergences within rock and metal, Spirit Adrift’s ‘Divided By Darkness’ understands that there is no substitute for huge ambition, soul-bearing lyricism and most importantly the ability of a pristinely penned riff and impassioned chorus to alter hearts and minds. Astonishingly ‘Divided By Darkness’ is Spirit Adrift’s heaviest and most accessible album to date and will stand as the apex of Heavy Metal songcraft in 2019.

Pure Steel Records 2019 – Brandnew US-Metal ! Lim. to 300 black copies, insert

For Fans of Flotsam And Jetsam, Hades, Metal Church, Heretic, Armored Saint, Savage Grace or early Overkill

Trauma first hit the scene in 1982 and counted Cliff Burton as one of its members back in their early days. They had a big hit in '84 with their album Scratch And Scream and then they just disappeared until 2015 and released Rapture And Wrath to coincide with the remastered edition of the aforementioned album. Fast forward nearly three years and they are ready to unleash As The World Dies, a classic traditional Heavy Metal album with a tasty thrashy twist. Ten tracks crammed full of melodic vocals, scorching riffs and solos with a big back beat of thumping drums and bass. Rob Halfordesque 'Painkiller' vocals and a tasty drum beat just seems to seep into your brain and fester and when the guitars come out to play you will think you have, unlike the title of the song, gone to heaven with savage riff and nice little solo thrown in for good measure.

MAGAZINES

DEAF FOREVER #29 (NEW*GER MAG*POSSESSED/WINO + POSTER: RAZOR # GIRLSCHOOL) - 7 €

Scott „Wino“ Weinrich ist eine der ganz großen Kultfiguren der Doom-Szene und hat gleich mehrere legendäre Bands und Projekte in seinem bewegten Leben auf die Bühnen der Welt gebracht. Außerdem hat Wino, der „heimliche Sohn von Lemmy Kilmister“, mehr zu erzählen als 95 Prozent aller anderen Musiker. Jakob Kranz schrieb mit - und zwar so viel, dass wir gar nicht anders konnten, als dem „Doomfather“ eine Titelstory zu widmen.

Keiner hat es für möglich gehalten - aber es ist tatsächlich so gekommen: Im Herbst ihrer Karriere haben Possessed noch einmal etwas ganz Großes kreierte und es geschafft, an ihren Jahrhundertklassiker „Seven Churches“ anzuknüpfen. Frank Albrecht war (fast) sprachlos.

Für heftige Diskussionen in unserem Team sorgen die Schweden Enforcer mit ihrem neuen Album „Zenith“. Elender Ausverkauf einer Band, die bislang fest in der Speed-Metal-Szene verwurzelt war, oder grandiose Bestleistung? Wolf-Rüdiger Mühlmann tendiert klar zu Letzterem und verteidigt seine Brüder im Geiste.

Vor 30 Jahren fiel die Mauer, kurz darauf gab es die DDR nicht mehr. Seit einem halben Jahr arbeiten unsere Redaktions-Ossis an einen Special über die DDR-Metal-Szene. Dabei ist so viel lesenswerter Stoff zusammengekommen, dass wir ihn auf zwei bis drei Hefte aufteilen müssen.

Den Anfang machen heute Szene-Urgestein Marcus Marth (Postmortem) und Wolf-Riedscher Miehlmomn.

Es passiert nicht alle Tage, dass sich ein allseits populärer Schauspieler als „einer von uns“ outet. Charly Hübner, vor der Wende ein „typischer Ost-Metaller“, verkörpert sowohl die erfolgreiche Wiedervereinigung als auch das politische Gewissen der Integeren. Ein bemerkenswertes Interview.

Noch ein Jubiläum: Fast genau 30 Jahre nach Erstveröffentlichung des vielleicht besten Death-Metal-Albums aller Zeiten, „Altars Of Madness“, blicken wir zurück und interviewten für ein kultiges Special Hinz und Kunz. Stefan Franke untersuchte sogar die damalige Thankslist der schwarzen Götterscheibe...

Weitere Interviews haben wir geführt mit: Grand Magus, Arch/Matheos, Twisted Tower Dire, Yngwie Malmsteen, Anthem, Vltimas, Ketzer, Tesla, Usurper, Steel Prophet, Iron Savior, Okkultist, The Riven, Brutus, Myrath, Seax, Danko Jones, Steel Shock, Gold, Tanith, Laster sowie Eternity's End.

Unsere Magazin-Gruft namens Under A Funeral Moon liefert euch diesmal u.a. Interviews mit Darkened Nocturn Slaughtercult, Sinmara, Imha Tarikat und Chaos Invocation. Unsere beliebten Rubriken The Dungeons Are Calling, Maniac der Ausgabe und Forgotten Jewels fördern wieder massig Wahnsinnige, Tipps und Talente zutage. Im Live-Sektor lagen die Schwerpunkte diesmal beim Hell Over Hammaburg und beim Metal Assault.

Selbstredend gibt's ein komplettes Bundesland voller Tonträger-Reviews, und zwei geschmackssichere Poster spendieren wir euch ebenfalls: Razor & "Executioner's Song" sowie "Hit And Run" von Girlschool.
